SENATE PASSES FOOD CONTROL BILL

Conferees From Both Houses Will Begin Work Early This Week

AUTHORIZES PRICE FIXING

Measure Provides for Minimum Guaranteed Price of Not Less Than $2.00 for Wheat

CALLS FOR FOOD BOARD

WASHINGTON July 21.—The administration food control bill virtually re-written after five weeks bitter contest was passed today by the senate 81 to 6. Conferees from house and senate will begin work early next week and leaders are hopeful the measure may be in the president's hands in ten days.

Sets $2 as Minimum Wheat Price

As revamped the bill gives the president broad authority over foods feeds and fuels, the latter including kerosene and gasoline, provides for administration by a food board of three members instead of an individual. Authorizes federal fixing of coal prices, requisitioning and operation of mines and authorizes a minimum guaranteed price of not less than $2 per bushel for wheat at primary markets.

The senate prohibition sections prohibiting manufacture of distilled beverages during the war and directing the president to buy all distilled spirits in bond was sustained for the house "bone dry" provision and will be one subject of difficulty in conference.

Senators voting against the bill were: France, Maryland; Hardwick, Georgia; Penrose, Pennsylvania; Reed, Missouri; Sherman, Illinoics, and Sutherland, West Virginia.

Dispose of Scores of Amendments

Scores of amendments were disposed of today but the principal features were the incorporation of the amendment authorizing the minimum wheat price and another by Senator Pomerene greatly broadening the government's power to handle the coal situation. The government guarantees for wheat would be payable at all principal primary markets until July 1, 1919. The sale rejected 46 to 3 an amendment by Senator Norris to have the food board instead of congress fix the minimum price.

The Pomerene coal amendment incorporated by the overwhelming vote of 72 to 12, directs the president, thru the federal trade commission or other agency to fix coal prices wholesale and retail, regulate the entire industry and if necessary to take over and operate coal mines and fix prices of labor.

On a final vote the senate refused 60 to 23 to place the bill's administration in the hands of an individual. Senators understood today the administration intended to have the conferees substitute the original house provision for a single administrator.

Another Source of Trouble

This will be another source of conference trouble. Appropriation in the house bill of $150,000,000 was left unchanged by the senate which added an appropriation of $10,000,000 however, for federal purchase and sale of soda nitrates for fertilizer.

Another important senate addition to the bill provides for a joint congressional committee to supervise war expenditures. It was proposed by Senator Owen, a Democrat and incorporated by a vote of 53 to 31, several other Democrats voting with the solid Republican membership.

The senate also added provisions against hoarding of foodstuffs and for regulation of grain exchanges authorizing the president to close them if necessary to stop speculation in futures.

Claim Share of Success

Altho leaders obtained adoption of all their compromise amendments the small group of senators who have persistently fought the bill tonight claimed a share of success. Chairman Gore of the agricultural committee withdrew his substitute bill saying five of its seven principal provisions had been adopted in the measure before the senate. The bill limits government control virtually to the original subjects of the house measure—food, feed and fuels. In lieu of the house bill's board provisions for licensing food dealers the senate bill limits federal licensing to the following agencies and these only which have products in interstate or foreign commerce:

Wheat elevators, cold storage and packing house, farm implements factories, coal producers and dealers of designated necessaries.

The house bill's provisions for federal requisitioning of necessaries is limited by the senate redraft to foods, fuels and other supplies for military purposes only.

Limit Government Purchase

Government Purchase and sale of foodstuffs, to maintain reasonable prices also is limited by the senate bill to fuel, wheat, flour, meal;

WILL USE ARMS TO PREVENT DEPORTATIONS

Gov. Campbell Makes Assertion in Telegram

Sends Emphatic Message on Receiving Report That Loyalty League Was Preparing a General Deportation of All I. W. W. Members

Globe, Ariz., July 21—That Colonel White with five troops of United States cavalry at his command will "use arms if necessary" to prevent deportation of Industrial Workers of the World from the Globe-Miami district was the statement of Governor Campbell in a telegram to Major F. M. Johnson, Jr., commanding the home guards.

A report reached Governor Campbell that the Loyalty League was preparing a general deportation of all I. W. W. members to take effect tonight. In response he sent the following emphatic telegram to Major Johnson.

Gov. Campbell's Telegram

"Thru the commanding general, rizona department, I learn that persistent and apparently authentic rumors indicate that attempt will be made at Globe and Miami tonight to ship I. W. W. out of district. Colonel White will prevent such action with force if necessary first advising both sides of that intention."

Major Johnson denied that a deportation of I. W. W. had been planned for tonight altho he refused to admit that no such action might occur in the future.

Following is his telegraphic reply to Governor Campbell.

"We the home guards, compose most of the membership in the Loyalty League and are law abiding citizens of this community. Tonight in open meeting, we were placed under the orders of Colonel White and Sheriff Armer. Report as stated in your wire, unfounded and given out by our enemies as well as the enemies of our country and our flag. Rest assured that law and order will be preserved but under correct orders."

Intense Excitement in District

Intense excitement prevailed thru out the district today when it was thought that the troops would be removed. Many citizens and several business men openly declared they "would not remain if the troops were ordered away."

Announcement was made tonight that members of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers at a secret meeting voted not to return to work until their demands were granted by the big operating companies in the district.

A meeting of 300 American miners was broken up this afternoon in Miami by United States troops but Captain Davis later announced a meeting of the body will be permitted tomorrow as a committee informed him they were planning to take a vote to ascertain if American miners wish to return to work under the present conditions.

CONTINUE PROBE OF ALLEGED PLASTER PLOT

KANSAS CITY, July 21.—Investigation of the alleged court plaster plot thruout Kansas was continued today by Fred Robertson, United States district attorney for Kansas at Kansas City, Kans., and other government agents. Chemists who have been experimenting with specimens of tetanus germs in the suspected plaster are awaiting the outcome of infection tests upon guinea pigs. Mr. Robertson expected a report from them today or tomorrow.

INSPECT FIELD HOSPITAL UNIT.

Chicago, July 21.—Field hospital unit No .4, commanded by Major J. J. McKinley, was inspected and mustered into the federal service here today by Captain Edward Hubert of the army medical corps. Ambulance Company No. 1 will be inspected tomorrow. Ambulance companies Nos. 2, 3 and 4 have been ordered to be organized, according to Colonel Jacob Frank in charge of all units in Illinois.

WARRANT INVESTIGATION

Washington, July 21.—The department of justice today issued a statement that altho it does not take a "sensational view" of reports that enemy agents were responsible for distribution in a western state of court plasters containing poison, there has been enough officially reported on the subject to warrant thoro investigation both as to the manner of distribution and the germs in the plaster.

SAYS GERMAN AGENTS CAUSED DISTURBANCES

Russian Premier Sends Message to Russ Sailors

New Premier Appeals to all Democrats to Stand by the Provisional Government—Kerensky Addresses an Order of the Day to the Army and Navy.

Petrograd, July 21.—The recent disturbances in Petrograd were instigated by agents of the German government, said Premier Kerensky in a message to the sailors at Revel, Helsingfors and other ports. The new premier appeals to all Democrats to stand by the provisional government. His message reads:

'It has been established without a doubt that the disturbances were organized by agents of the German government.

"The disturbances now have been suppressed completely and the arrest of the leaders and those guilty of the blood of their brothrs and crimes against the government and the revolution is proceeding. Arrests also are being made among the sailors who acted contrary to their civic and military duties.

"I appeal to all true sons of democracy to rally around the provisional government and the Democratic organizations thruout Russia to save the country and the revolution from without and his allies within."

Kerensky Issues Order

Petrograd, July 21.—Premier Kerensky has addressed an order of the day to the army and navy directing:

"First, the dissolution of the central committee of the Baltic fleet, and election of a new committee.

"Second, notification to all detachments of these ships of the Baltic fleet that 'I desire them to remove at once all persons suspected of inciting to insubordination against the provisional government and against our offensive and to send these individuals to Petrograd for trial.'

"Third, detachment of Kronstadt and of the Battleships Petropavlovsk Republica and Slava, the names of which have been disgraced by the actions of the counter-revolutionists, shall arrest within 24 hours the ringleaders and send them to Petrograd for trial, thus giving assurance of complete loyalty to the provisional government.

"I hereby notify the Kronstadt detachments and crews of these ships," the order continues, "that if this order is not carried out they will be branded as traitors to the country and the revolution and the most vigorous measures will be taken against them.

"Comrades: The country has been brought to the brink of a precipice by treason. The German armies and artillery have taken the offensive on our front. At any moment a decisive action may be forced by the enemy's fleet which may try to profit by the confusion of the moment. Drastic measures are necessary once for all to put an end to this confusion. The army already has done something in this direction and the fleet should follow suit."

STATE COAL PROBLEM WILL BE DISCUSSED

CHICAGO, July 21.—Illinois' coal problem will be discussed by operators and dealers next week, when beginning Monday a series of meetings will be held to delve into every phase of the mining situation in the state and its effect upon coal supply next winter.

Forty leading coal operators met here today with the state council of defense and a joint committee of nineteen members was appointed to frame a definite program of prices and production. An attempt will be made to define a reasonable profit."

Coincident with this meeting the Illinois and Wisconsin coal dealers' association will be in session here to discuss similar problems. On Tuesday a conference of retailers east of the Mississippi river and west of Pennsylvania will be held.

SAVE NEGRO FROM MOB

New York, July 21.—Twenty four naval militiamen saved Conrad Hart, a West Indian negro from a mob of 1,000 persons after he had shot and killed his wife in Brooklyn today. The crowd was threatening to lynch Hart when the naval men, with fixed bayonets, drove it back until he was rescued by the police after being severely beaten.

FIND SOCIALISTS GUILTY

Cleveland, O., July 21.—A jury in federal court today returned a verdict of guilty in the trial of three Socialist party leaders under federal indictment on charges of hindering registration for selective service. C. Ruthenberg, former candidate for mayor on the socialist ticket; Aldred Wagenknecht of Olivet and Charles Baker of Hamilton, were the men found guilty.

ARREST BECOMES PUBLIC

Newark, N. J., July 21.—The secret arrest several weeks ago by department of justice agents of Karl Basal, formerly a non-commissioned officer in the German army, and now a member of the first regiment, New Jersey National Guard, became public today when the prisoner was transferred to Ellis Island. He had been under heavy military guard in the Essex conuty jail here for reasons which are still kept secret.

HARRY LEGG WINS TITLE

St. Paul, Minn., July 21.—For the seventh time Harry Legg of Minikahda is Minnesota state golf champion. In the final round of the tournament at White Bear today he defeated Fred Mahler of the Town and Country Club, 4 and 3.

DRAWING LIST IN HANDS OF PRINTER

Copies To be Mailed to Exemption Boards Not Later than Tuesday

FIND MISSING NUMBER

Men Coming Under First Call Will Not Be Notified Until Master List Reaches Board

EXPECT FEW SLACKERS

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Despite the fact that officers and clerks of Provost Marshal General Crowder's office worked all last night to complete the drawing that fixed the order of military liability of 10,000,000 registrants the tally sheets had been compared and corrected before dark tonight and the list was in the hands of the printer.

Copies will be mailed to local exemption boards, beginning not later than Tuesday and the summoning of the first draft of 687,000 men can begin.

Crowder Issues Statement.

Genral Crowder tonight issued a statement saying the drawing was complete and apparently successful and that the next step will be certification of the results of the drawing to 4557 local boards and the application by each board of its chart to its serially numbered list. Such additional drafts as may be ordered by the president will be filled by calling men in the order of this established priority and no further drawing will ever be necessary.

"I cannot let this opportunity pass," says the statement, "without reference to the very great value of the assistance which has been so earnestly and efficiently rendered by the press. Without the systematic campaign of public information that prepared the country for the registration, the enrollment of ten million men on the fifth day of June would have been impossible. The generous support of the newspapers thruout the period since registration day is appreciated and only the most thoro efficiency could have placed upon the streets, within a few hours after the first number was drawn, lists for each registration district, showing the names of the persons who would be summoned for examination on the first call of the local boards."

Gives Out Regulations.

General Crowder also made public the text of the regulations for their application which will accompany the master lists. The only new feature shown is the plan for handling cards that are found to have duplicate numbers or are otherwise confused, and also of dealing with those received July 10 when the local boards closed their lists to begin numbering. By the plan worked out these additional cards will be given an order of their own by lot and will then be added to the lists of the districts from which they come and be affected by the drawing precisely as tho they had been received and numbered before the board lists were closed. Where several cards bear the same serial number one will be drawn from the group and retain the duplicated number, while the others will be regarded as unnumbered and the process of adding them to the lists be followed.

The whole question of industrial exemptions, has been turned over directly to these district boards which have original jurisdiction in all cases of this kind.

The first purpose today in checking the tally sheets was to discover one missing number. A blank capsule was found among the 10,500 capsules taken from the bowl one at a time in the drawing. At the time a notation was placed on the tally sheets sohwing that the blank had come up No. 10,004. The drawing was carried thru and the empty pellet was put back each time it came up with the hope it would be found to be 10,501 when the drawing was finished.

When 10,499 had been drawn however, the empty capsule was all that remained in the jar and it was known that one slip had not been placed in the drawing.

Find Missing Number.

Today's checking showed the missing number to be 4,664 in the serial lists of registrants. That number will be placed as No. 10,004 in the liability lists on the official records and all numbers drawn after that will be moved down one point so that the present last number, 3,217 now posted as No. 10,499 will become No. 10,500, completing the drawing. There will be also, other minor corrections to make but they will be very small as the tally sheets were kept so carefully that a practically perfect result was obtained immediately on discovery of the missing number.

Men alloted by the drawing to be among the first to appear in their districts to fill district quotas in the force of 687,000 men the president

SENATE PASSES HOUSE AVIATION MEASURE

Bill Appropriates $640,000,000 for Aviation Service

Senate's Only Dispute is Over an Amendment to Strike Out Clause Authorizing Drafting of Men for the Aerial Service—Bill Now Goes to President

Washington, July 21—The house bill appropriating $640,000,000 for the aviation service was passed late today by the senate without amendment or a record vote and with less than an hour's discussion. It now goes to the president.

The senate's only dispute, with many members expressing a desire to pass the bill immedately, was over an amendment of Senator Hardwick of Georgia, to strike out a clause authorizing drafting of the men for the aerial service. The amendment was rejected 66 to 12 after Senators LaFollette and Gronna made brief speeches opposing the draft.

Withhold Details of Plans

Details of plans for expending the huge sum appropriated have been withheld, but it is known that it provides for about 22,000 airplanes and nearly 100,000 men. The president is expected to sign the bill Monday and the work of building one of the greatest air fleets the world has seen will be pushed with vigor. During the first year officials hope to produce 1,500 with a great increase the next year. For the first few months virtually the entire attention will be centered on construction of student planes and there has been talk of bringing British and French aviation student officers to the United States for training. In rejecting the Hardwick amendment the dozen senators voting to strike out the draft clause were:

Borah, Broussard, Curtis, Gore, Gronna, Hardwick, Kirby, LaFollette, McKellar, Norris, Owen and Vardaman.

In a vigorous speech opposing the draft clause Senator LaFollette said that any war prosecuted by democracy ought to be without compulsory service.

"Democracy ought never enter a war that it cannot prosecute with volunteers," he said, particularly objecting to compulsion for the extra hazardous air service.

Wants Draft Law Repealed

The Wisconsin senator declared that he would fight for the repeal of the draft law so long as he is in the senate and predicted that the draft will be the main issue at the next election and that ninety per cent of the voters will declare against it. He said he intended offering a resolution repealing the draft law. Senator Gronna said he opposed the draft provision for the same reason as Senator LaFollette.

Senator Calder offered as an amendment the resolution of Senator Chamberlain, proposing to amend the army draft law to make aliens subject to conscription except subjects of Germany or those exempted by treaty. He said of the ten million men registered over one million are aliens, Arizona alone having forty per cent of aliens.

Senator Wadsworth, Stone, Brandegee, Lodge and others also urged legislative action to subject aliens to yesterday's draft as well as future calls.

Senator Stone said that the foreign relations committee planned to take action regarding the treaty question and Senator Chamberlain said the state and war departments are being consulted regarding his resolution. The latter said that if possible the military committee would act upon it next week.

The amendment was finalyl withdrawn to expedite the bill.

ALLOW SOLDIERS TO ACCEPT WINES

AMERICAN TRAINING CAMP in France, July 21.—By The Associated Press.—This was champagne day for the American soldiers. After long discussion the American staff decided to allow the soldiers to accept the champagne and red wines which the French government presented to them July 14, Bastile Day.

The greatest need of the American soldiers appears to be reading mattr. Magazines, newspapers and books are not obtainable here. A movement is under way to interest Americans in Paris in sending old magazines and books to the camp. The representatives here of the Y. M. C. A. hope to be able partly to make up the deficiency in reading matter bofore long.

Two high officials of the United States war department arrived at the camp this morning. They were taken immediately on an extended inspection of the camp by Major General Sibert. American troops here will extend the scope of their training on Monday by beginning to practice bomb and hand grenade throwing. The majority of the officers, including even some of the general staff have already experimented successfully along this line and with the aid of French assistants will be able to instruct the men.

WILSON TO INTERVENE IN SHIPBUILDING ROW

Will Take Steps to End Trouble on Return to Capital

Executive Decides To Put An End To Differences On Receipt of a Letter from Gen. Goethals Saying He Would Resign if the President Thought That Would Solve the Problem.

Washington, July 21.—President Wilson has made up his mind to intervene in the ship building row and will take steps to resolve the situation after the return from a week-end trip on the Mayflower.

The president's decision to put an end to differences that have halted the government's building program was made after he received yesterday a letter from Major General George W. Goethals, declaring the situation appeared hopeless and the general would resign if the president thought that would solve the problem. There was no information concerning the president's reply but officials familiar with events of the last week were of the opinion tonight that the president may have asked General Gothals to give him time to go into the situation. Difficulties between Chairman Denman of the shipping board and General Goethals, manager of the board's emergency fleet corporation starting over the board's wooden ship plans came to a head last week, when the president authorized the fleet corporation to build ships and directed the board to operate them.

The start was prepared at the request, General Goethals, of Chairman Denman, who asked a short delay to give the shipping board time to go over the plans.

Mr. Denman has declared he asked for no delay but did ask that the general submit in detail his plan, as the shipping board, responsible for expenditure of millions of dollars appropriated wanted to know how it would be spent.

WAR NEWS SUMMARIZED

Prince Leopold of Bavaria is pressing into the Russians' lines along a 25 mile front between Zlochoff and Tarnopol. The Russians were in retreat in this sector all day Friday according to their own account which lays the brunt of the blame upon failure of certain commands to obey orders. The Russians burned villages and wrought havoc in the countryside as they fell back, the Berlin statement reports.

Apparently toward evening ahe Russian commanders were able to rally their forces as the Petrograd report speaks of a Russian pause along a definite line. Saturday evening's supplementary German statement however, says the advancing Teutons had reached the vicinity of Tarnopol. The Russian front also failed to hold firm against Teutonic assaults in other sectors Berlin declares. It announces the recapture of positions north of Brazezany, the capture of the village of Babin, south of the Dniester, and of heights near Novica on the front of General Cornilloff's advance on the Lomnica front. The situation on the Franco-Belgian fronts represents much the same features as for some time, with frequent German attacks on the French lines but official statements record no changes of the ground. The Russian internal situation seems to be revolving itself satisfactory to the forces of order. The chief powers of the government now are in the strong hands of Kerensky, as premier and minister of war and marine.

REPORT VILLA FORCE MARCHING ON TORREON

JUAREZ, Mex., July 21.—Six thousand men under command of Francisco Villa and Canuto Reyes are reported moving on Torreon.

Jiminez, 131 miles north of Torreon, which was occupied by Villa a few days has been evacuated by the rebels and General Francisco Murguia has moved his headquarters there from Chihuahua City. The capture of Torreon by the rebels would isolate northern Mexico from the capital. Reyes who is reported to have a thousand men, has recently been identified with the Felix Diaz movement in the state of Oaxaca.

TERMS CHANCELLOR'S SPEECH A MERE SHAM

British Premier Speaks In Denunciatory Tone of Shams in Address

WANT FREER GERMANY

Lloyd-George Asserts England Could Make Peace with a Free Germany

UNDER-ESTIMATES U. S.

LONDON, July 21—The British prime minister David-Lloyd George speaking at a great patriotic demonstration in Queen's hall this afternoon in commemoration of Belgian independence day, characteried the speech of the German chancellor, Dr. George Michaelis, as a mere sham, facing all ways and declared that he did not want the Germans 'to harbor any delusions that they are going to put Great Britain out of this fight until liberty has been re-established thruout the world."

Great Britain could make peace with a free Germany but with a Germany dominated by autocracy, declared the premier, there never could be peace.

Under-Estimate America's Efforts

The Germans, said the premier, were making the same mistake in under-estimating America's efforts in the war as they had made about Great Britain in the beginning.

"They said that we would not fight," continued Mr. Lloyd George, "and if we did we could not. We had no army and we couldn't raise one and they need not worry about Britain. I think they have discovered their mistake about us and now are just going thru the same process with America.

"I want to put this to them, if Great Britain, not a very large country, while she is maintaining and equipping and even building up equipment for an army of millions afield and in reserve in full fighting array; while she is maintaining the largest navy in the world, can organize in the third year of an exhausting war to turn over millions of tons of new shipping, is America with twice the population of this country, with endless natural resources, going to be beaten merely because she puts forth no effort. The man who talks like that knows not America; otherwise he would not say it.

Refers to Sneering Remark

Referring directly to the German chancellor's sneering remark that America has no ships and no army and that when America has an army it will have no ships to bring them across the sea the premier said:

"He knows America just as little as the Germans know Great Britain."

Far from being starved by the U-boats, Mr. Lloyd-George declared, Great Britain's food supply for 1917-18 was already secured, production was increasing and losses at sea were diminishing. He had sought in the chancellor's speech for something which he could hope for the ending of the bloody struggle.

"But," he declared, "I see in it a sham independence for Belgium, a sham democracy for Germany, a sham peace for Europe and I say that Europe had not sacrificed millions of her gallant sons to set up a sanctuary for sham."

Enthusiastically Greet Utterances

A crowd had gathered in the expectation that the premier would reply to the German chancellor's speech, and his utterances were greeted at times enthusiastically.

Mr. Lloyd-George asked what hope there was in the chancellor's speech of peace.

"I mean an honorable peace which is the only possible peace," he said. "It is a dexterous speeching, a facing-all-ways speech. There are phrases for those who earnestly desire peace, many of them, but there are phrases which the military powers of Germany will understand, phrases about making the frontiers of Germany secure. That's the phrase which annexed Alsace-Lorraine; that's the phrase which has drenched Europe in blood since 1914; that's the phrase—if they dare—that will annex Belgium and Courland; that's the phrase which will once more precipitate Europe into a welter of blood within a generation unless that phrase is wiped out by the statemanship of Europe.

"What manner of government the Germans choose to rule over them is entirely a matter for the German people themselves. But as to what manner of government we can trust to make peace, that is our business. Democracy is in itself a guarantee of peace, but if it cannot be got in Germany then we must secure other guarantees as a substitute."

No Hope of Belgium in Speech

The speech of the German chancellor, continued Mr. Lloyd-George, meant that for the moment the military party in Germany had won and showed that those in charge of Eventually the city's public improvement bonds must be paid. Why not now?

Belle Plain (Iowa) Union: There is a growing belief in the country now that things are not as they should be in Washington. The Goethals incident will add to this opinion.

A DEBT THAT MUST BE PAID.

Some day or other Jacksonville will be forced to pay its present public improvement bond deficiency of $23,000. If this amount is not paid now it will continue to grow because the deficiency carries interest. As a matter of good business this deficiency should be paid. As a matter of good morals it should be paid. The city—and that means the people—and individuals of the city are both legally and morally obligated to meet this debt. Next Tuesday the question will be up for a vote and you will be following the right and honorable course if you vote in favor of the issuance of these bonds.

With the fall of Von Bethmann-Hollweg, the last survivor of the original group of war premiers disappeared from the scene of activity. Every belligerent Cabinet in Europe has been more or less reconstituted since the war began The American Cabinet may prove an exception—but there are many who hope not.

THE COST.

A careful taxpayer will naturally be interested in knowing how much his taxes will be increased if a majority of people favor the bond issue at the election next Tuesday. The sum necessary to raise each year for a period of ten years and in order to carry the interest and refund these bonds would mean a tax of 1.1 mills. With such a tax the property owner who has a home valued at $3,000 and assessed at $1,000 would have a yearly addition to his taxes of $1.10, and this of course applies in the same percentage to the man who pays larger taxes and to the smaller housholder. If you own a property which has an assessed valuation of $500 your increase in taxes on account of the bonds for the motorization of the fire department and to take care of the present improvement bond deficiency would not be more than 55 to 60c per year.

Isn't it worth it to secure this added protection from fire for your home, and isn't it worth it to thus enable Jacksonville to pay its honest debts and keep a good record before the business world?

INCREASE PRODUCTION OF DENATURED ALCOHOL

A measure designed to promote the production of denatured alcohol, and the economical and efficient use of the by products of its manufacture has been introduced by Congressman William J. Cary of Wisconsin. He proposes that a Government bounty of 15 cents a gallon shall be paid to distillers of commercial alcohol where the resulting mash is fed to live stock within 5 miles of the premises where the material from which the alcohol was manufactured was grown. Mr. Cary believes that the result of the operation of his bill will be the establishment of small distilleries over the country, a greatly increased production of alcohol, and the return to the soil of a large proportion of the material that is used in its manufacture.

YOUR OWN INTERESTS.

One question before the voters at the election Tuesday will be to decide whether or not the Jacksonville fire department shall be motorized. Authorities are agreed that motorization of the department means better protection from fire for the homes of Jacksonville. The figures show that new equipment driven by motor power can be maintained and operated at much less cost than horse drawn equipment. When you think of voting on this question the only consideration that should guide you is whether or not it will be better for you and the city to continue with inadequate and out of date fire equipment. In your consideration of this question don't get a lot of unrelated facts mixed up in your argument. Neither the present or any past city administration is on trial.

PROTECT YOUR OWN.

The proposed additional equipment for the Jacksonville fire department if secured will furnish protection for property in the extreme parts of the city because it will provide the means of taking the equipment speedily from the department to these distant points. The new equipment will also make it certain that property damage will not result because a second fire starts while the department is still engaged in fighting a first fire. The plans provide for some reserve equipment and in case of a very large fire the whole equipment could be used and a delivery of 2200 gallons of water minute made.

"Protect your home" is a principle that does not usually need much emphasis. A man usually does that instinctively. The principle applies to the present discussion of improving the Jacksonville fire department. Motorization of the department means greater protection for your home and any other property that you may own. You can be afforded this protection if the bonds in the sum of $17,000 are carried at the election next Tuesday. This issuance of bonds will be added to your annual taxes for a period of ten years a very insignificant sum.

CUBAN SUGAR

After all the story with which the Democratic party has regaled the public in regard to sugar, the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, after an extensive investigation into "The Cane Sugar Industry" has been obliged to acknowledge that even with the duty added the cost of Cuban sugar delivered in the United States in 1913-14 was 2.7238 cents a pound, compared with 3.975 cents for Louisiana cane sugar and 3.74 cents for United States beet sugar. Did the lowering of the duty on sugar lower the price? Ask Mrs. housewife. The seabord sugar refiners, however, who are interested in getting Cuban raw sugar as cheaply as possible, were able to add to their margin of profit by the lowering of the duty.

AVOID LITIGATION.

If you apply the same principle of honor to the debts of the city that you do to your own you certainly have no course left but to vote in favor of bonds at he election next Tuesday. It is proposed to issue $23,000 in bonds to take care of the city's public improvement bond deficiency. These bonds are held by innocent purchasers, some of them living in Jacksonville and some of them elsewhere. The bonds are obligations. They are long past due. For several years the bond holders have been writing and demanding and threatening in an effort to get the money which is due them. These bond holders do not want to bring suit if in any other way they are able to secure their money. The bringing of suits means expense for them, just as it does for the city. The only reasonable course is for the city to pay these bonds without litigation. The city has no other means of securing money to pay the obligations except by the plan now proposed.

A BLOW AT THE ENEMY.

A strong blow was struck at the enemy yesterday when the senate passed the house bill appropriating $640,000,000 for the development of an aviation corps for the army. A strong plea has come from the allies that assistance with a large force of aviators would mean a great deal in the contest with Germany. With an adequate fleet of ships carrying food and supplies to the allies, and with a great number of aeroplanes aiding them in the air fighting, experts believe that the U. S. will not be called upon to furnish very great forces of armed infantry and cavalry. The passage of the aviation bill thus is not only a blow at Germany but a measure designed for protecting American saldiery.

THE WAR SITUATION IN A NEW LIGHT

Fathers and mothers who are feeling gloomy because their sons have been drawn for war service will find comfort in the prediction of Congressman McKinley that the war will be over before the end of 1917. The congressman recently expressed this opinion in a published interview wherein he further said that he believed by the time the army cantonments have been erected and the men have gone thru the necessary period of training, that the need for their services abroad will be past.

Nevertheless, the fact remains that those who agree with Congressman McKinley are few and the draft has brought more seriously to mind that the war is real than anything else which has happened since the U. S. declared a state of war existed. The great majority of the people have somehow or other had the feeling that the U. S. would do a good deal of bluff about all this preparation and that the U. S. would do litle other than to furnish money and munitions. Then came the talk of a volunteer army to go to France. This was followed quickly by the English and French mission visit, in which the great need of the allies for armed assistance was pointed out. It was made clear that these nations were almost at the point of exhaustion and the active support of the U. S. was needed not only to increase the armed forces but to add to the spirit and forcefulness of those already in the field.

Even then most of the people refused to believe in the "realness" of the plan to send American soldiers to fight in the trenches. The discussion of the conscription bill went on in congress and then the bill was passed but still the people gave little heed. Finally the draft plans were outlined and the exemption boards were named. Still a sort of apathy prevailed. But the day of the draft all this changed. The war in its actuality was brought face to face as nothing else had served to do.

Before, the conflict had been something away off, something of which the people read day after day, some with interest, some with indifference, nearly all with only a vague understanding of what was actually happening on that battle front hundreds of miles in length. The day of draft came and now these reports from abroad are read with new interest. No line escapes and the American who sees things in the new and true light is trying to study out conditions as they are. They realize that there is no "bluffing" about this war preparations procedure. The camps have been designated, the buildings are in course of erection, the men have been drawn and in a very short time they will appear before the exemption boards and then a little later will come the assembling at the training camps. Two months of training will be given and then the soldiers will be loaded into transports and sail for foreign ports.

Yes, the people have known all this in a hazy, indistinct sort of way for weeks and months past, but now the atmosphere and sky are cleared and they see things in the naked reality. War is here and they know that what Sherman said of war is true.

After all, it is not surprising, this slowness with which the American people have grasped the real situation. They have no precedent to go by. In fact, present conditions violate all precedent so far as the U. S. is concerned. It has been the boast and the principle of Americans that they have no active interest in affairs in Europe and it is contrary to the ideas of the forefathers for the U. S. to engage in any entangling alliance. But conditions and times have changed. World affairs were so shaped that the course of America was utterly changed. Precedent and history were swept away by present day facts and the U. S. forced into alignment with the allied nations—forced as a matter of honor and self-preservation—forced into a titanic struggle in behalf of liberty and democracy.

No, it is no wonder the people have been slow to appreciate and to understand this wholly new situation. But the understanding has come and now with a new seriouness—a new thoughtfulness—they see conditions in the light of truth. This change can mean only one thing, and that is the forming of a most vigorous purpose to prosecute this war to a victorious end.

YANKEE DOODLE'S DANDY.

Good Yankee Dood's in khaki breeches,
He's put his armor on,
He's trained his boys in digging ditches,
And now he's shipped some on.
He's heard a lot of din and rattle,
And more of maudlin talk,
But now he's ready for the battle,
He'll show Prush how to walk.
Good Yankee Dood asks now for justice,
He feels our cause is right,
And when the hoodlums try to bust us,
He trains his lads to fight.
He's not the kind that goes round sneaking,
But from the shoulder strikes;
If you will listen while he's speaking
You'll hear what he dislikes.
No slacker's ever to his liking,
His nose tilts in disgust,
He points the way they should be hiking,
And speaks the words "You must."
For Yankee Doodle I am speaking
For Yankee Doodle I am yelling,
He knows just what to do,
His khaki boys are strong and willing,
And to Old Glory true.
So Yankee Dood you'll find me handy,
Should I fit in your plan,
I like your grit just fine and dandy,
And I'll help you all I can.

THE FOOD CONTROL BILL.

After weeks of discussion the senate yesterday passed the food control bill by a vote of 81 to 6. This does not mean that the law has been signed and is on the statute books, for in its amended form it must now go back to the house for discussion and action. Nobody knows how long a time that will consume. When the house has acted upon the measure it will then go to the president for a signature. Broad powers are given to the president by the senate's amended bill for the control of foods, feeds and fuels, but if you can tell just effect the bill if passed in its present form would have on wheat and flour, you are indeed a wise man.

A report of the action taken sent out by an afternoon press association stated that the senate bill fixed the maximum price of $2 per bushel for wheat. Associated Press dispatches made it clear that the action really taken was to fix a minimum price of $2 per bushel. This price was fixed in order to stimulate production and to make certain that it will be profitable for American farmers to raise wheat during the coming year. It gives no indication of what the maximum price will be, and therefore no indication as to the cost of flour to the consumer.

The broadest kind of powers are given to the president for regulating the price of coal both at wholesale and retail if he so desires. By the Pomerene coal amendment, which was adopted by a vote of 72 to 12, the president if he deems it advisable, may take over and operate the coal mines of the country, fix the price of labor and the price of coal in every community in the land. This is a very different authority from that given with reference to flour, the bill as indicated, fixing a minimum price but making no stipulation as to the maximum.

The most important point of control with reference to the price of wheat is contained in the paragraph which authorizes the president to close grain exchanges if necessary in order to stop speculation in futures. This amendment will have the effect of inducing the directors of boards of trade to adopt rules as to futures in accord with the views of the administration.

The wheat market has advanced from 40 to 50 cents a bushel during the past week and a guess after a careful study of the senate's action Saturday is that for the present prices will continue to advance for cash wheat and other grains.

THE AMERICAN FIELD COMMANDER.

Major-General William L. Sibert, Gen. Pershing's field commander, is a native of Alabama, and was graduated from the Military Academy at West Point, to which he was appointed from Alabama, in 1880.

"Announcement that Major-Gen. William L. Sibert would be in immediate command of the forces now on French soil is only another indication that the seniority rule has been discarded in favor of efficiency. Gen. Sibert is known as one of the brightest engineers of the army, and also as a fighting man. During his long career he has been called on many times to prove his ability along both lines and has never failed. He is a graduate of the Military Academy, having completed his course in 1884, two years before Gen. Pershing was graduated. He ranked seventh out of a class of thirty-seven and was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Corps of Engineers. In 1888 he was commissioned a first lieutenant and from 1892 to 1894 was assistant to Gen. O. M. Foe, and in direct charge of the construction of one-half the ship channel connecting the waters of the Great Lakes. In 1896 he was promoted to captain and three years Later he was sent to the Philippines, where he was chief engineer of the Eighth Army Corps. Gen. Theodore Schwann is on record in the War Department as being of the opinion that it was Sibert's constant resort to expedients to get troops over seemingly impassable streams and rivers that enabled a military expedition to clear Old Cavite, Novaleta, Rosario, and other places of insurgent forces. In 1904 he received his commission as a major in the Engineers, and three years later the Department showed its faith in his ability by appointing him a members of the Isthmian Canal Commission.

"He was placed in charge of the old Department of Locks and Dam Construction with headquarters at Culebra, and remained at the head of that organization until the creation of the Atlantic Division in July, 1908, when he was made its division engineer, in charge of the construction of Gatun locks, dam, and spillway, of the Toro Point, and the work in the harbor and channel of the Atlantic entrance. All these projects were practically completed under his jurisdiction. He was a member of the Commission the Red Cross sent to China in 1914 to make a survey of the Huai River section, with a view of the prevention of floods and resultant famines. In 1909 he was given the rank of lieutenant-colonel and in 1915 he was jumped to the rank of brigadier-general by the act of March 4, 1915. He attained his present rank only a month back, when the President nominated three brigadier-generals to be major-generals without regard to seniority."

Rippling Rhymes
By WALT MASON

THE TALKERS

I like to hear men talk, when they're not selling stock, when they can spiel of linseed meal, of chipmunks, chese and chalk. But ever as I walk my soul receives a shock; the men I meet in mart or street are selling mining stock. I never meet a gent on poetry intent, who knows the dope of Scott and Pope, and is on Shakespeare bent. Ah, no, the man of guile comes with his beaming smile, to sell me shares and other snares and bore me for a while. How happy I would be if I a man could see who'd talk some time of Shelley's rhyme, and Gray, his Elegy. To sit beneath a bush, far from the coin-mad push, and talk for hours of birds and flowers, and hand out soulful gush! To leave the clanging streets and talk of Burns and Keats, with some glad jay who felt that way—'twould be the best of treats! But soulful men don't walk with me around a block; the modern men hate lyre and pen—they all sell mining stock. They are selling shares in patent folding chairs, in mines and mills and swamps and hills, and homes for polar bears. They're dealing in hot air, and little do they care for Ossian's lyre or Milton's fire, or Byron's wild despair.

DRAWING LIST IN HANDS OF PRINTER

has summoned will not be advised officially to appear for examination before local boards until the master list of the drawing has reached the local boards. The names of those to come forward will then be posted and the man who fails to appear when notified will be promptly hunted down and the penalties imposed for attempted evasion exacted. Officials anticipate that there will be very few slackers however. The spirit shown in the registration indicates that the draft will bring out every man to whom it applies without further legal process.

Word of the registration in Porto Rico came today from the governor who reported that it would far exceed estimates, as with 104,550 men registered additional cards are expected by mail to bring the final figure perhaps to 110,000.

The district boards announced tonight for Iowa were: Northern district—E. M. Cassaday, W. J. Egloff, D. M. Kelleher, T. J. O'Donnel, Harry B. Plumb; southern district—William Cochrane, N. D. Ely, Harry Hopley, G. F. Tucker, Clarence Van Epps.

SENATE PASSES FOOD CONTROL BILL

beans and potatoes. The house bill provision for authority to requisition factories generally was curtailed by the senate to factories, packing houses, mines and other plants, needed for military or other public use connected with the common defense.

A senate amendment regarding government war supplies purchased thru the defense council's advisory commissions, would prevent members from soliciting federal contracts in which they are pecuniarily interested.

Among important provisions of the house bill stricken out was that establishing a general government control of all necesasries.

Neither house nor senate draft contains the original administration proposals for government control of clothing and maximum price fixing.

TERMS CHANCELLOR'S SPEECH A MERE SHAM

affairs had elected for war. There was no hope for Belgium in the Michaelis speech, but the determination of the allies, said the premier was that Belgium must be restored as a free and independent country.

"We must not have a Belgian scabbard for the German sword," he declared; "the scabbard must be Belgian, the sword must be Belgian and the soil must be Belgian."

Speaking in denunciatory tones of the shams contined in the speech of Dr. Michaelis, the premier said:

"The chancellor tries to stimulate and encourage his people by doping them with illusions and Germany will find that her hopes are just as much illusions as others which have been dispelled. The U-boats are to put England out of business. Owing to submarine attacks we cannot last much longer, according to the German chancellor. I am sorry to disillusion him at the outset of his career but this compels me to do it. Gradually, but surely we are increasing our production and diminishing our losses at sea.

"Germany is not going to drive Great Britain out of the fight until liberty has been re-established thruout the world. The Germans are making the same mistake in underestimating America's efforts in the war as they did about Great Britain. It won't be long before Michaelis will have to deliver a different speech. That is what we are waiting and fighting for. The freer Germany is the better we like it.

Could Treat With Free Germany

"We could make peace with a free Germany. Germany dominated by autocracy we can never make terms with."

With special reference to Belgium the premier said the world would never forget the service rendered by that country to international rights. She had suffered three years of oppression; her deliverance was coming but it must be complete. The junker had thrown the old chancellor into the waste paper basket with his "scrap of paper" and it would not be long before junkerdom followed. Mr. Lloyd-George paid tribute to the patriotic work of the brilliant Russian statesman Kerensky, in his leadership of the Russian democracy and declared that in the great coming struggle in the east and west every German soldier must know in his heart that if he fought on he would be dying for military autocracy and fighting against the federation of free peoples. On the other hand every Belgian soldier and every Russian soldier knew that he was fighting for the freedom and independence of his native land.

"The future of mankind," continued the premier, "is ours to maintain and defend."

PRESIDENT VISITS HAMPTON ROADS

FORT MONROE, Va., July 21.—President Wilson visited Hampton Roads today for the first time since the United States entered the war against Germany. Acompanied by Mrs. Wilson, he arrived on the Mayflower and anchored in the roads after an uneventful voyage from Washington down the Potomac and Chesapeake Bay. The presidential party spent the night aboard the yacht but plans to come ashore Sunday before starting back to the capital. No official word of the coming of the president had been received at Fort Monroe and the Mayflower slipped into the roads without attracting any particular attention.

BELGIAN INDEPENDENCE DAY.

Paris, July 21.—On this date, eighty-six years ago, Belgium proclaimed her independence, and King Leopold made his entry into Brussels to take the oath as first sovereign of the newly formed kingdom. Today the tens of thousands of Belgian exiles held the customary observance of the independence day, giving evidence of the irrepressible spirit of patriotism which still animates the people of that unfortunate land, despite the mailed fist of German barbarity. The churches in Havre, Cherbourg and elsewhere, where there are considerable colonies of Belgian exiles, held special services. Many of the churches proved too small to contain the great crowds who called upon God to protect Belgium.

DEFEAT FLETCHER'S EFFORT

Washington, July 21.—An effort by Senator Fletcher to make the $27,000,000 rivers and harbors bill the unfinished business of the senate was defeated late today on objection of Senator Borah who said many features of the bill in his opinion should be rejected. He said the bill was not a war measure.

Boston, Mass., July 21.—Speculations are rife concerning the fate in store for the Socialists—or more formally the Workmen's Council of Greater Boston—who have obtained a permit from Mayor Curley to hold a meeting on Boston Common tomorrow afternoon. It is recalled that, following a parade and peace demonstration in the same vicinity several Sundays ago, when soldiers, sailors and marines engaged in a rough-and-tumble fight with the Socialists, threats were reported to the effect that, if the parade was repeated and the same or similar banners were displayed, even greater disorder would result.

RESTRICTION PLACED ON SALE OF LIQUORS

Impossible in Sweden to be Served With Any Kind of Liquor Without Accompanying Order for Meal—Home Consumption Greatly Curtailed.

London, July. — (Correspondence.)—Reprisals upon German non-combatants for the recent air raids upon London are opposed by the Most Reverend Randall Thomas Davidson, Arch-bishop of Canterbury, in a letter he has written to Sir Thomas Barlow, in response to a request to indicate the principles that ought to be considered. The Archbishop wrote:

"My own point is best expressed in the words of a resolution passed, on my own motion, by the bishops of the province of Canterbury. We recorded our conviction that the principles of morality forbid a policy of reprisal which has, as a deliberate object, the killing and wounding of non-combatants.

"The key of the situation lies in the intention of the act. Of course in one sense 'reprisal' is of the essence of war. We bombard fortified towns, the object being to harm the enemy's combatant forces.

"But quite different is an attack, the direct object of which is to harm or kill non-combatants, either for reasons of vengeance or in order to promote terror, or in the hope of deterring the enemy from perpetrating outrages. That is the kind of 'reprisal' in which some people wish us to indulge.

"In my belief such action if we were so mistaken to adopt it, would be altogether futile as a deterrant; the Germans would always out-distance us in ruthlessness."

Stockholm, July.—Devotees of distilled liquors have fallen on evil days in Sweden. Restriction after restriction has been placed on sales both over the bar and in bottles. Since June 1 it has been impossible to be served with any kind of liquor without an accompanying order for a warm meal costing about 40 cents. Even then no more than fifteen contiliters, about five fluid ounces, of liquor may be served in all, and not more than a third of this may consist of the strong brandy, which in Sweden, has from time immemorial, taken the place of the American preprandial cocktail.

One result of the new order unquestionably has been a great waste of food, for countless meals are ordered and either left untouched or else slightly toyed with and mixed with cigar and cigarette ashes by careless people. At the better class restaurants and hotels, "restrictive meals," corresponding to the "property sandwich" of some American cities, are served. These consist generally of one fried egg. Before the recent change in regulations, which prescribe a "cooked, warm" meal, the "restrictive meal" was wont to consist of an apple or a few grapes.

Drinking thus becomes an expensive luxury. To obtain one whiskey-and-soda for instance, one pays, in the better places, the equivalent of 40 cents for his "meal," the same for whiskey, 35 cents for a bottle of seltzer or soda, and a tip to the waiter. The total amounts to more than one doller, at the present rate of exchange.

The restrictions on the sale of bottled goods for home consumption are even less liberal. They grant to the privileged holders of the "motbok" (passbook) the privilege of buying two quarts of spirits each three months, making a possible home consumption of little more than two thirds of an ounce each day.

PRISONERS OF WAR REACH SWEDEN

GRAIN MARKETS SHOW SHARP ADVANCES

Local Elevators Now Offer $2.15 for Wheat and 56 Cents for Oats—Government Rules on Grading Very Rigid

A heretofore unheard of condition prevails at Morgan county elevators this week. Prices for cash grain have advanced steadily and Saturday the Joy Prairie elevator was offering $2.15 for wheat and $2 for corn. The $2.15 price for wheat was offered for delivery made any time this month or in August. A price of 56c was offered for oats with the same delivery conditions.

S. O. Shuff is thus far recorded as the only man who has sold his corn at $2. He had a quantity of good yellow corn on hand which he sold to the Joy Prairie elevator at this figure.

As mentioned elsewhere, sales of wheat have been made at $2.25, a number of farmers having contracted at this price with the elevator at Reco. Henry Goebel of the Jacksonville Grain Co. was asked yesterday something about market conditions and explained that the price now offered by elevators for wheat is for No. 2 red and No. 2 hard wheat. The latter is rated at about 5c higher than the former on the market.

The Market Spread

The market boards in the various banks yesterday indicated a cash price of $2.50, while the elevators were offering $2.15. Mr. Goebe explained that there is naturally some spread, covering the freight costs and commission, and that at the present this is larger than in the past because of the government's new grain regulations.

No. 2 cash wheat selling on the market at $2.50 must test 59 lbs It must show less than 4 per cent damage other than from heat, and less than 1 per cent of dirt. Another rule is that if wheat shows more than 6 per cent of some other grain then it is not sold as wheat but is sold on the level of the grain constituting the 6 per cent. For example, if a car load of wheat containing more than 6 per cent rye is sent to market it is sold as rye and not as wheat. The rules as to dockage under prezent law are very strict. Dockage includes sand, dirt weed seeds, weed stems, chaff straw, grain other than wheat and any other foreign material which can be removed readily from the wheat by the use of appropriate sieves, cleaning methods suited to separate the foreign material present; also undeveloped shriveled and small pieces of wheat kernels necessarily removed in properly separating the foreign material.

Many Bidders for Grain

In answer to questions, Mr. Goebel stated that the present high prices for wheat are occasioned by the fact that old stock is almost exhausted and the flour makers come into the market to make certain definite purchases to cover sales they have made. Conditions have changed materially in the past few months and now when a car of wheat or corn reaches the market it is not necessary to go about and look for a purchaser, but rather for the owner to fix a price at which he will sell. Until the government food bill becomes a law Mr. Goebel is of the opinion that the market will continue active and with an upward tendency. He commented upon the fact that Canada has fixed a maximum price of $2.40 a bushel for wheat. This is a high price but will not mean that all wheat will sell at that figure. In fact, a very considerable portion will likely sell at a lower price. A large consumer of wheat will have no special purpose in laying in a great supply at $2.40, when he knows that if he simply uses up his present supply and buys his surplus later that he will not be compelled to pay more than $2.40. Naturally large purchasers will therefore not buy great supplies in advance for thus they will have the use of their money and avoid the risks incident to storage. The inevitable result will be to keep market levels at least somewhat below the maximum.

In the front rank stands the Overland car for speed, durability and good qualities.

LAND BRINGS GOOD PRICE.

In his capacity as master in chancery John M. Butler yesterday sold at the south door of the court house 120 acres of land belonging to the Charlesworth estate. In addition the Government furnishes food, lodging and clothing.

The equipment consists of the Army Field Bakery No. 1 oven with equipage. One of these ovens with equipage is designated as a unit, and is so equipped that it is a field Bakery complete in itself with a personnel of 6 men capable of supplying 1800 men per day with bread.

Fifteen (15) of these units constitute a Bakery Company and the Compay has a capacity of forty thousand pounds of bread per day.

This is an opportunity for strong and energetic young men to learn a trade. Men who volunteer now will have an excellent opportunity for promotion. There are about 800 vacancies in the grade of Sergeant Baker and 600 in the grade of Corporal to be filled by the most capable men.

In addition to this there will be vacancies in the grade of 1st and 2nd Lieutenant for experienced bakers with the necessary educational qualifications. A young man with a good High School education stands a good chance to enlist, learn the baker's trade, and place himself in line for promotion to the grade of Non-Commissioned Officer and Commissioned Officer. Why not enlist now for one of these companies? You have an opportunity for service abroad and a good chance for promotion.

The Quartermaster General has decided to offer these commissions in these Companies to deserving men from the ranks.

By authority of the Quartermaster General.

Eventually the city's public improvement bonds must be paid. Why not now?

WORDS OF APPRECIATION

Last night Frederick R. Martin, assistant general manager of the Associated Press, sent from New York the following message to all operators regular and extra:

"The Associated Press is deeply grateful for the untiring service you have rendered in this emergency. The work is not over in certain sections and we shall have to struggle on with it as best we can. It is an opportunity to render a public service and however arduous the labor is you can all be proud of it."

The telegram was an expression of appreciation of the faithful and arduous services performed by the operators. On the circuit in which the Journal receives its report there were three operators who stayed on the wire for a period of 35 hours with rest periods totaling not more than 5 hours. This "endurance" list includes W. H. DeShara of the Journal, William Baptist of the Bloomington Pantagraph and George Hyman of the Waterloo Times Tribune.

STRIKE AT WHITE HALL SEWER PIPE PLANT

White Hall, July 21.—A strike of employes of the White Hall Sewer Pipe & Stoneware company, including the employees of the White Hall Drain Tile company and the White Hall Railway company, remains unsettled this evening. The men walked out to a man Friday morning, numbering over two hundred, demanding an increase of five cents per hour over the present scale of twenty cents per hour and upward.

President F. H. W. Krenning arrived from St. Louis today, and he is negotiating with a committee of the men, this committee consisting of Wesley Firth, Frank James, Benj. Armstrong, Charles Hedgepeth, John Briscoe and Alvin Hutchens, representing the various departments of the works and the allied enterprises. The company has offered to compromise on an advance of two and one-half cents per hour, but this has been declined by the committee. Meanwhile not a wheel is being turned, but hope is expressed that an adjustment will be reached by Monday.

Or the dangerous, criminal glare of the ordinary lens.

The Warner is the most scientifically constructed headlight lens known—176 lenses in one.

Rival lenses argue other theories, but engineers don't accept them. One needs an all-embracing light, and the Warner-Lenz gives that. Warner-Lenz light is the same in every position. Turning of the lens in the door of your headlamp does not affect it, nor does rise and fall of the car.

LITERBERRY WOMEN FISH AT WOLF LAKE

Luck Was so Against Them that the Members of the Party Believe They Were Hoodooed—Quarterly Conference at the Concord M. P. Church—Other Literberry Notes.

Literberry, Ill., July 21, 1917.—Friday evening about 6:30 o'clock a big McFarlan six drove up to Sunshine Cottage and commenced unloading a promiscuous load of people, Grandpa and Grandma Henze, Carl Henze, wife and daughter, Miss Bernice, Mr. Brune, wife and daughter, Miss Charlotte. This proved to be the liveliest crowd we ever saw in our village, just running over with fun and good cheer, (Mr. and Mrs. Carl H., are here from Oregon, on a visit) Mrs. Carl Henze was raised in the Bend and we knew her from childhood. She was one of the brightest, most intelligent and best looking girls in the Band, and that is why Carl married her. See? We certainly enjoyed the visit and expect another in the near future.

A few ladies of our own village had made the remark that hey would go down to Wolf Lake and show the Big 4 what fishing meant, they also promised to make the big catches of the big 4 look like thirty cents, when compared with theirs.

Thursday morning the following in two cars, started for the lake, full of determination and fun, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Crum, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Liter, Mr and Mrs. J. (Deak) Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. D. K. McCarty and Mrs O. M. Petefish. Mrs. Crum and Mrs. McCarty made no pretentions to fishing, going only for the trip and for company Mrs. Daniels made the first cast and caught the first fish, J. M. Liter took a few small cat and sunfish, S. H. Crum took a small carp and a few sunfish, Mrs. Petefish took a small carp and a few measly sunfish. While Mrs. Liter drew the booby prize. Deak Daniels had a big smile on his face all day, he took a dozen pretty good fish, among them a carp weighing two and one half lbs. Mrs. Daniels took eight snufish and carp. Deak has sent in his application for membership in the Big 4 club.

Mrs. Liter and Mrs. Petefish certainly deserved better luck after the strenuous work they did. They pulled thru buck brush and vines, waded in mud and put up a losing fight with the mosquitoes all to no purpose. There is talk of a hoodoo but just where or who caused it is still a mystery.

Now this fatal trip places us in a somewhat peculiar position parrellel to the position of "Old dog Tray" We have received a citation to appear before the official board of the Big 4, to show cause why we should not be expelled from the club.

We believe the charge is being hoodooed or hoodooing over neighbors. We are sure of one thing and that is, there is going to be something doing when we stand before this August Board. We are suspicious, some one wants the belt and with us out of the way they think it will be an easy go.

We had the pleasure of attending the 4th. Quarterly meeting of the M. P. Church, Concord circuit, which was held at Union on Friday, afternoon. We met number of members from Concord, while Grace Chapel was represented by five members Union was not represented The business of the conference was attended to, as far as was best, and a call quarterly meeting was arranged for, some time in August, to be held at Grace Chapel, when the left over business will be closed.

We are expecting Rev. Fairchild to be returned to Concord circuit, for he is well loved by all the active members, and has been faithful to his church work for two years. The good wishes of all go with him to the annual Conference that he may be with us again for another year or more.

THE SENTANEL REMEDIES CO., INC., CINCINNATI, O.

OH SKINNAY, COME ON OVER, I GOT A CHAUTAUQUA BOOK.

Haint you saw one? Pop got one today and mam and him read it at supper. Pop says he jest can't see how them Chautauqua fellers can sell such a good show so cheap an' he knows 'cause he run one for ten years up north, he did. Pop he says every day is a fifty cent day and it only costs a quarter and that all the time tickets are dirt cheap 'cause one couldn't get such shows anywhere else for four times as much money . He figered it out an' says there is more an 75 shows on the book an' they only cost two cents, ef you get one of them all the time tickets. An' pop he knows 'cause he takes one of them papers what's all about Chautauquas 'cause he jest can't quit taking it. He says I gotto earn money to buy my ticket, but I know pop an' before the beginning he'll give me a ticket and some chickenfeed to get ice cream cones 'cause I heard him say lots o' times that a good Chautauqua is most as good fer a kid as a year at school an' a man too an' the one at Uncle Sam's park is all right for boys and girls too an' me an' sis'll both go. I betcha you a million dollars and besides pop told me last year ef I'd learn to spell and say Chautauqua right he'd let me go this time. Sis takes music at the 'Cademy and she says the music is all crackerjacks an' sis knows 'cause she asked her teacher. I aint much on musics but I'll jest bust ef I don't see that Injun chief with the funny name from South America an' pop says he sings an' I didn't know Injuns sung in American. An' I'll jest bust ef I can't see them Honolulus like they was at the Bird of Paradise that wears that rope thing 'round their necks an' the funny clothes that aint no clothes at all but jest grass and strings an' plays the ukeleles an' makes that long pulled out music that just makes me crazy to listen all the time an' that I can't make at all on mine or yourn either. An' then there is a Rabbi—I never did see one o' them in all my life—but my Sunday school teacher told us what they was an' pop knows Rabbi Wolsey 'cause he's heard him and he says he's a dandy talker an' everybody oughter hear him.

Pop says he's goin' to let mam an' sis go to the Boston simfunny 'cause he likes the Dixies minstrels singers an' the Oxfords but jest know pop will go to them 'cause he says they is top notchers an' he always does go when them kind comes an' he'll go to the Dixies an' the Oxfords 'cause he said both of them was the best yet.

An' oh say Skinnay, I'll jest bust ef I can't go when them Kilties is here 'cause they is the best band that plays bagpipes and dances and sings them old songs that your granma sings an' they goes 'round on the streets with kilts, whatever them is, with their knees stickin' out in cold weather an' they went all over the world that way an' wasn't arested either, an' played fer the king an' all the rich men, an' pop says they cost a whole pile of money too. Mam says that girls' band that was here when it rained so hard—mam went out that day to hear Bryan an' her red hat run all over her white waist—is good enough fer her. She says they was the nicest girls, an' jest played and played in the rain in the tent an' played too an' never got mad an' all the rest of the crowd was wet or mad.

An' Skinnay, you know what? They got Prof. Gilbert to set up on the big table an' tell people what is comin' next an' to talk to boys an' girls an' I heard him last year an' he's goin' to tell about birds, an' bees, an' ants, an' trees an' everything that scouts like an' we'll jest take our scout book an' read all about 'em—your goin' aint you? —O, I know you aint no scout 'cause you aint old enough, I aint either but pop says Prof. Gilbert wants all us boys an' girls to come even ef we aint scouts—girls can't be scouts—an' I'm goin' to ask him if horse hairs does turn into snakes, an' if they does have hoop snakes in Greene county like Bill Camp says they do an' why the sparrows chased our bluebirds. He talks to us kids mornins an' I jest know I'm goin' 'cause mam she says she's goin' out all mornins to learn how to make jelly the best way an' put up fruit an' do housework an' make dresses an' I jest know mam'll want me to go with her an' I jest believe I'll stay all the time even ef pop won't let us camp 'cause the Red Cross is goin' to have a tent there to teach knitting an' I'm goin' to ask Miss Capps ef I can be an erran' boy an' wear my scout suit.

An' Skinnay, I most forgot they is so much of it, they got a big band what plays a movie what is the Soldier's Dream an' I never heard a soldier's dream or a big band play at a movie an' I want to be a soldier an' I kinda want to know what soldiers dream about—pop says they dreams about their best girls and mam says about their mothers an' home, an' I bet they dreams about fried chicken an' gravy, and pie an' ice cream and they sing a whole lot too an' that band is goin' to play all the soldiers songs an' all the music that jest makes you want to fight.

An' say Skinnay I 'most forgot—wait till I look into the book again—theys a whole lot of men I jest got to see or I'll bust. They is Evans who comes from England and Steiner who comes from where the war started an' Evans he's a cousin or something of that big man in England, somebody George an' they is both goin' to tell us lots about what we see in the papers an' I'll jest bust ef I can't see Mr. Shaw who was in the fightin' at Verdun and lots o' places in France an' he jest come home to rest an' he is goin' to show us them gas masks an' iron hats an' a lot o' things an' tell us how they fight an' how the Red Cross gives the soldiers water an' takes care o' them when they is hurt. An' I'm sure goin' to see Governor Lowden 'cause his picters was pasted all over town an' I want to see ef he looks like his picters and pop says every body likes the Governor an' mam she says she's goin' to see Mrs. McCormick cause she is a woman's leader an' has got lots o' sense an' is workin' hard for the war an' for all the women of Illinois an' sis says she dotes on readers an' she'll jest bust too ef she can't go an' see Margaret Stahl 'cause pop says she is the best reader he ever heard an' he has heard most all o' them too.

CITY PROPERTY

(A) We are pleased to offer this choice residence only a few blocks from the square on West State street.

The house is comparatively new and in first class condition. There are nine rooms with oak floors down stairs, hard pine up stairs and tile floor in the bath room. This home is fully equipped with all modern conveniences and is a most desirable property. It has been leased for five years at $40 per month. Can give possession August first. Can be had now for less money than would be required to buy a lot and build a six room cottage. See us today.

No. 733. On Hooker street we have a four room cottage built on a lot 66x165 feet, for $650. Will take good second hand car and carry the balance in notes.

FARM PROPERTY

(A) Prospective farm buyers should be out early these days and should buy soon so they may take their profit yet this fall and buy again. Really, the banks will have to work overtime to count the money that our crops and stock are going to bring in to the country. Think of it. Millions more of money but never another acre of land. If you will go right now a forty minutes drive in the car with me I can sell you a high grade farm of 180 acres for $185 and turn you the grain and cash rental on 40 acres of wheat, 40 acres of oats, 60 acres of corn, 40 acres of grass. Within two and a half miles of three elevators and a good town, but you must go now.

(B) I can show you a fine farm of 200 acres all fine farming land with about 10 acres where the buildings are and a 20 minutes' drive from Jacksonville. The buildings are fine, house, horse barn, cow shed, silo, hot house, machine shed and all things needful. This can be had for $190 and is a real bargain.

Now don't wait until November for these best bargains will be taken long before that and you will be compelled to take the cull farms at higher price. Phone me and give me three hours of your time. It means much to you.

INSURANCE MEN FAVOR MOTORIZATION PLAN

Meeting Held Yesterday When Vote in Favor of Proposed Change Was Taken—Will Mean Better Protection.

In accordance with the suggestion of Commissioner Martin a meeting of Jacksonville fire insurance agents was held at the city hall Saturday morning. The purpose of the meeting was to explain to these fire underwriters the city's plan for motorizing the fire department. After a statement had been made by Mr. Martin the whole subject was discussed in an informal way. Agents or firms represented were Goebel & Chenoweth, Ashley & Norman, William Gorman, J. M. Hurst, Anna G. Bergschneider, Charles H. Ward, John N. Kennedy, D. E. Sweeney, L. S. Doane, Edward Keating, F. L. Gregory, J. M. McCullough, C. O. Bayha and M. O. Mathews.

At the conclusion of the discussion on motion of Mr. Ashley with a number of agents seconding, a unanimous vote of approval of the proposal was recorded. It developed in the discussion that the motorization of the fire department has been strongly recommended by the Illinois board of underwriters and therefore the plan which the council is now outlining is in direct accord with the wishes of the state fire insurance men.

It was very evident that the insurance men who attended the meeting Saturday believe that to motorize the fire department will mean better protection for property of Jacksonville people. There are a number of other agents in Jacksonville in addition to those present at Saturday's meeting and most of them, altho unable to be present, indicated by telephone that they are heartily in sympathy with the proposed fire department betterments.

Eventually the city's public improvement bonds must be paid. Why not now?

COAL BIDS REJECTED

At a special meeting of the city council the coal bids received at last Monday's session were all rejected and it was determined to ask for bids again. This action was taken after the council had given the matter thoro discussion. There is a feeling in the council that in the course of a short time there is a possibility that action by the state council of defense may result in a lowering of prices in Illinois. A conference with this in view was held in Chicago Saturday between the members of the council and coal operators.

CLARK GREEN RETURNS FROM QUINCY RACES

Entered Number of Horses Trained at Local Driving Track This Season—Took Second Money in 2:30 Trot—Will Go to Griggsville this Week.

Clark Green has returned from Quincy where he went with a number of horses to enter in the races there.

Tuesday he entered Bettie Boyd in the 2:30 trot and took second money; best time, 2:19 1-4.

Wednesday he entered three horses. W. N. Hairgrove's Sim in the 2:25 pace but the horse was out of form and acted badly and took nothing. Missouri Earl in the 2:20 pace; took fourth money, was third in last two heats.

Marie Constant with nine starters in the 2:14 trot, drew second tier; in the first turn encountered a wreck and was unable to get thru at any time; was fourth in second heat; trotted last half mile in 1:05 1-2 but having no standing for money had to go to the barn.

Thursday he entered nothing.

Friday he ntered Ophelia Peter by Peter the Great in the 2:30 pace and lost the first heat, but won all the next three; best time 2:17 1-4.

This week he expects to take seven horse to Griggsville: Nettie Boyd, property of Green & Foster for the 2:30 trot; Miss Ophelia Peter, property F. W. Foster, Aleaxnder; Sim, of F. W. Foster of Alexander; Sim, property of W. N. Hairgrove; Missouri Earl, property of Thomas Lane of Quincy; Marie Constant, property of G. W. Foster of Alexander; Van da Vincen, property of Dr. Laird of Auburn; Beulah Fuller, property of Leslie Butler of Auburn. Mr. Green has been training all these horses at the Jacksonville driving track this season.

FARMERS SELL WHEAT.

A number of farmers in the vicinity of Woodson have sold their wheat to the Rees Farmers' Elevator, for the almost fabulous price of $2.25 per bushel. This seems to be an enormous price and indeed it is, but it shows in a small way, what the public may expect prices of food and commodities to be this fall.

Among those who sold wheat at this price were Horace Palmer, Howard Rollin, Leslie Rollin and Henry Reese. Despite the fact that wheat is bringing such a price as this some farmers are storing their wheat to wait for higher prices.

G. B. ANDRE RETURNS FROM LONG AUTO TRIP

Covers Distance of Twenty Two Hundred Miles—Excellent Crop Conditions in Ohio and Indiana.

G. B. Andre and family, with Denham Harney as chauffeur, have returned from a long auto trip, covering a distance of twenty-two hundred miles, and carrying them thru Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, and New York, to Niagara Falle. The route which Mr. Andre and his family took was from Jacksonville to Decatur, to Danville, Ill., and from there to Lafayette Ind. From Lafayette they went to Marion, Ind., and thence to Van Wert, Ohio. Then Lima, Ohio was visited and from there to Bellview. From this point practically all the roads were paved to the end of the journey, which carried them thru Norwalk, Oberlim, Alberia and Cleveland, Ohio, and Buffalo, New York, to Niagara Falls. After a visit there they returned by the same route to Bellview, and from there to Ypsilanti, Detroit, Lansing, Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo, Paw Paw, Michigan. Back into Indiana the party went thru South Bend, Lafayette, Hoopeston, and thence thru Bloomington, Lincoln and Springfield to Jacksonville.

Mr. Andre said yesterday that the thing which impressed him most was the excellent appearance of crops in Indiana and Ohio. The food conservation drive is taking effect the country over, and with nature's assistance crops even in the usually non-agricultural communities of our eastern neighbors, look exceptionally good. Gardening is being carried on extensively in all parts of the country.

While in Lafayette, Ind., the party saw Mr. and Mrs. Harry Overesch and Mrs. C. W. Brown. Mr. Overesch was formerly Miss Esta Brown of this city. At Marion they visited at the Boxell home.

Mr. Andre claims a rather remarkable record in that the entire trip of 2200 miles was made without a single puncture or blow out. Gasoline ranged in price thruout the country, from twenty to twenty-eight cents per gallon, and in the oil fields where the gasoline is daily produced, the prices were higher than in other locatities.

NUMEROUS PLANS FOR THE MONUMENT

Fourteen Architects Reported That Designs Will be Submitted—Association Held Session Saturday.

The Morgan county monument association met in regular session yesterday morning and in the absence of Secretary Charles H. Rammelkamp, S. W. Nichols was requested to serve in that capacity.

Chairman McDougall announced that fourteen persons would send competitive plans and models for the monument and he felt certain that something well worthy of the couse would be submitted.

A special finance committee consisting of Chairman C. E. McDougall and Messrs. Wilson and Magill was appointed to audit all bills and perform the duties usually incumbent on such committees. S. W. Nichols reported observations regarding monuments in Bloomington, Peoria and other places. In Bloomington they have on the monument bronze tablets bearing the names of all McLean county soldiers and in addition names of residents of the county who enlisted in the civil war and another roster of McLean county soldiers who died or were killed while in the service. In Peoria they have on the monument a bronze tablet recording the names of Peoria county soldiers who lost their lives while in the service.

Considerable discussion followed regarding the selection of names and manner of enrolling them on the monumental tablets. It was finally decided to enroll first the names of all soldiers who enlisted in the civil war in Morgan county and then separately the names of residents of the county, persons who have been identified with its interests and who served in the civil war. It was also decided to enroll names alphabetically without titles or any other particulars, such as regiment, company and the like. All persons knowing of names not in the adjutant general's report please notify Major C. E. McDougall.

WONDERFUL BARGAINS OF LADIES' READY TO WEAR GARMENTS AND MILLINERY THIS WEEK AT HERMAN'S.

MADE GOOD IN SPRINGFIELD.

The success of young persons who have left Jacksonville is always a source of pleasure to the friends they left in the city. Two young men who have especially made good since leaving Jacksonville, where they spent the greater part of their young days are David and Lewis Shrewsbury who went to Springfield some years ago and have attained a very good degree of success and that wholly unaided, all by their own efforts coupled with strict integrity and a good degree of ability.

David, the older, has a fine position with a prominent house and a few months since married his employer's daughter, a charming young lady with whom he lives most happily.

Lewis has atained an enviable position in musical circles. He has a responsible position with a leading music house and in addition has a studio where he gives lessons. He is much in demand as a soloist, receiving good pay for singing on occasions. He has written considerable, much of which has been successfully performed and as a conductor has had fine success, many highly omplimentary press notices of his work appearing in the papers. Not long since there was a service in honor of the soldiers and the largest church in the city was packed to suffocation and many were turned away for lack of standing room. The Register said of the occasion it was the largest crowd ever turned away for lack of standing room.

The South Side Community chorus numbering one hundred members, supplied the music and the Register says of the organization: "The South Side Community chorus under the leadership of Lewis Shrewsbury has attained a degree of proficiency and confidence that makes their every song offering of much interest and pleasure" and a list of the selections follows.

REMOVAL NOTICE

I have removed my barber shop from 218 South Main to 203 West Morgan street, at southwest corner of square, and will be glad to welcome my friends and patrons in the new location, assuring all of the same efficient work and courteous attention which has been the rule.

SEEKING A FARM.

H. B. Osborne, one of Morgan county's worthy citizens and farmers, has gone with his son Russell on a land seeking expedition. They first visited Wisconsin and thence bent their steps toward North Dakota but as yet the family at home have not been apprised of any decision. It is a matter of regret that so good a citizen as Mr. Osborne should see fit to leave the county but he thinks it wise.

W. S. Tippet and Wilbur Hembrough of East St. Louis are spending a few days in the city with friends.

Do You Enjoy Kitchen Work

Or is It a Drudgery and Care?

One-half your time, Mrs. Housewife, is spent in the kitchen and you owe it to yourself and family to make this portion of your time as free from care and worry as possible. The kitchen range receives more constant use than other household article. Therefore why not have the most modern and convenient range you can buy?

A Leonard Hi-Oven Range

(Burns Coal or Wood—May Be Equipped for Gas)

Makes Kitchen Work More Pleasant

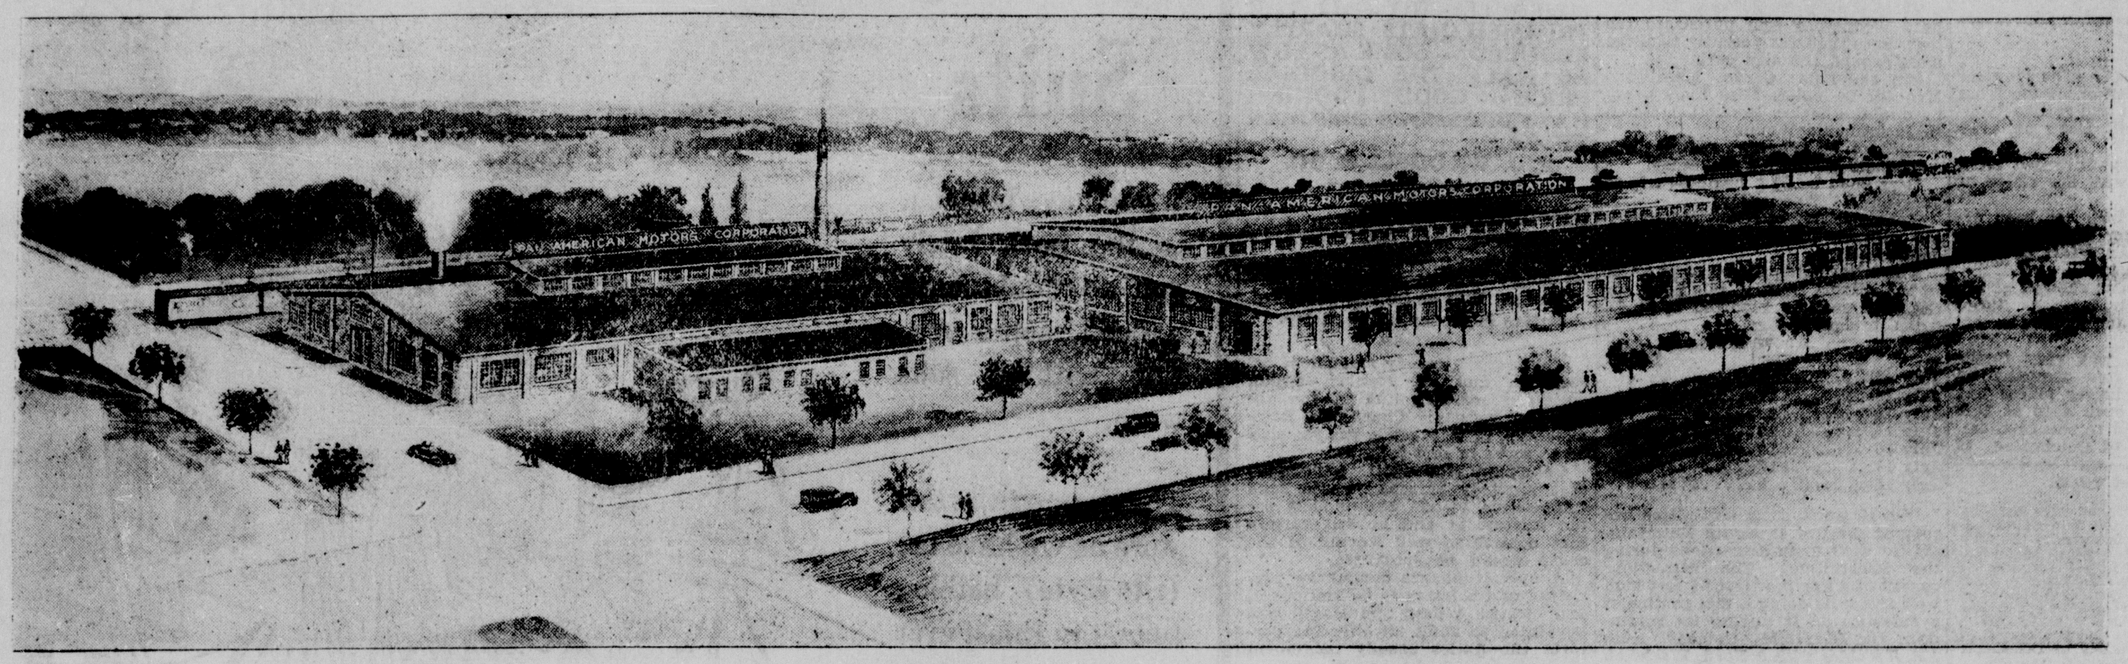

Leonard Hi-Oven Ranges are especially designed to make housework easier. They are built for your convenience. Think of the advantage of the elevated oven—no stooping—all work done in an easy, upright position and the baking always in sight owing to the glass over door. The nickeling is smooth and easy to clean—no rough places to catch the grease and dirt—and not too much nickeling either. A Leonard Hi-Oven Range takes the "ake" out of bake and saves work and worry for YOU.

JUST THE SIZE YOU WANT

You can buy a Leonard Hi-Oven Range in just the size you want. The 48-18 size requires a third less space in the kitchen than an old style low oven range and yet it has ample cooking surface for the average family and a large 18-inch oven. Then there is the 68-20 size, which has a large cooking surface and a 20-inch oven. There is a size and style just suited to your needs.

Come in and let us show you this range wonder.

There is a style to suit YOU Hudgin Furniture Co. Made in Fourteen Styles

America's Investors Are Laying the Foundation For this Vast Pan-American Automobile Plant

THE big, workmanlike plant you see pictured above is the Pan-American Car's home a year from now. We started less than three months ago and already have one factory completed and two others bought. Work on the rest of the buildings will go ahead with equal sureness and speed. America's investors, who with every mail are showing confidence in and enthusiasm for the Pan-American Automobile by their generous stock-subscriptions, are build- this plant for us---and we are building a big profitable business for them. We still have several blocks of stock for sale.

To Prospective Investors

If you want to put your money where it will be safe, where you can always count on good dividends, where you can reasonably expect phenomenal returns, invest in Pan-American stock. Our list of directors and stockholders includes shrewd, conservative business men and farmers; wise, far-seeing financiers; and men who know automobile value and merchandising through and through. If you will clip the coupon below, we will be glad to give you the names and opinions of some of these men as to Pan-American stock and other information of Money-value to you.

It is your duty to yourself to investigate Pan-American. Just as it was the duty of thousands of investors years ago to investigate the other now prosperous companies as an investment opportunity. Many of them did not —and are poorer men today. We have worked with the Pan-American idea long and carefully. We were sure to have the most expert and thorough investigation obtainable. Today we have the utmost confidence in our progress and profitableness, because automobile experts, merchandising experts and money experts have stated enthusiastically their faith in us. That is why we do not hesitate to say to you: "Get in now — today! — this is a sound investment—an investment with a brilliant future." We are not guessing; we base our attitude on solid business knowledge.

Get In Now---Before the Big Rise

Pan-American stock is about to advance 25 per cent August 1. This is exactly in accordance with our prediction when we said a few weeks ago that on the completion of the first factory the stock could not be kept down to par. You can still buy shares today at $10.00 instead of $12.50 (minimum sold is block of 10 shares.) But this expected rise is small, negligible, not to be thought of compared to the rise which we feel must come in a short time. We feel absolutely safe in predicting a 200 per cent rise by the end of 1918. We are growing so rapidly, we are surrounded by such a healthy atmosphere of faith and enthusiasm and hard, cold dollars, we are so warmly supported by excellent business brains and executive ability, that there is only one thing we can honestly advise any prospective investor, and that is "Get in NOW—before the big rise in the price of shares!"

WILL PRESIDE IN TRIALS FROM CRUZER CASE

Justice Goff Selected by Gov. Whitman—Famous Because of Connection With Lexon Investigation

New York, July 20—If any member of the New York police department is guilty of negligence or a greater offense in connection with the Ruth Cruger murder case it will scarcely be reassuring for him to learn that Governor Whitman has decided upon Justice Goff to preside at a special term of the supreme court, if one is ordered, to try any indictments that may be found in the grand jury's deliberations.

Justice Goff's experience in conducting the famous Lexon committee investigation will stand him in good stead as the presiding magistrate in such trials. He showed himself to be a thoro and merciless examiner, and there is no doubt that he would get all out of a trial pointed toward police "rottenness" which could be obtained.

Some say that John W. Goff is a harsh judge. Some say he is too impetuous, and that he displays at times the qualities of a judge advocate rather than those of the dispassionate, evenly balanced dispenser of justice. Others know that on more than one occasion he has reversed himself because in his mind there existed grave doubts about the fairness of a trial.

Time and again he has condemned from the bench the almost universal practice of letter writing in the cases of convicted criminals. "The persons who do this," he once said, "are not looking for mercy, they want injustice. Whether the letters or efforts to influence have effect or not becomes a secondary question. The main question is that a judge should be left undisturbed and uninfluenced in the exercise of his conscientious judgment as to what his duty is."

For many years Judge Goff was a picturesque figure in the general sesisons court. He was born in Ireland some seventy years ago and came to America in boyhood. His first employment was with a large dry goods house, then he studied law, and attended the evening classes at Cooper Union. Within a few years after being admitted to the bar he was appointed an assistant district attorney. Two years later he was nominated by the County Democracy and the People's Municipal League for the office of district attorney, but was defeated by the Tammany candidate.

Mr. Goff returned to private practice. Then came the famous Lexon committee to investigate the police department. Mr. Goff was selected as the committee's counsel, and he justified his choice. He began at the bottom and worked upward. As an inquisitor he was notably persistent, and at times merciless. Witnesses held him in terror.

The result of that investigation is still remembered. Corruption in every bureau of the police department was uncovered, and officers, high and low, were disgraced. New York turned upon Croker, and his Tammany government was thrown out of office. Like Charles E. Hughes, Mr. Goff got his reward. He was elected recorder of the court of general sessions, having received the nomination at the hands of the Committee of Seventy.

His very first act on the Monday of January, 1895, when he ascended to the bench, was to dictate an order to the official stenographer which directed that thereafter all indictments presented by the grand jury should be retained by the clerk of the court, and should constitute a part of the officials records.

Prior to that time the district attorney had exclusive charge and possession of all indictments. It remained in his power to dispose of them as he thought proper, to pigeon-hole, lose or possibly destroy them. Such things had constituted grave scandals.

Recorder Goff knew that the existence or non-existence of an indictment was one of the secrets of the district attorney's office and that no proper records were kept of these important papers. Since he issued his famous order a complete record of every indictment, accessible to anyone, has been kept in the clerk's office, and its final disposition has been made in open court.

Probably no man in New York knows the methods and mysteries of police graft better than does Justice Goff. Either as prosecutor or presiding judge he has been intimately concerned in the trial of every accused police official in this city during the past twenty years.

NEW AUTO LAW HAS STRICT PROVISIONS

Last Assembly Passed Measure Which Materially Changed Law Already on Statute Books.

The new state law governing automobiles shows a number of changes. There are some stringent requirements and automobile owners will do well to read this law as it may save them from the payment of fines.

"Within ten days after you purchase an automobile, the law requires that you have a license for the same. The minimum fine for driving your car without a license is $25.

"The law requires you to conspicuously display license plates on the front and rear of your automobile. If you lose one, get a duplicate. If you operate an automobile as a mechanic or employe, or if you operate an automobile for hire or for pecuniary profit, the law requires you to be registered as a chauffeur. If you operate a car as a chauffeur and have not a license, you will be fined $25.

"Do not employe any one who is not specially licensed as such. If you do you are liable to a fine of $100.

Chauffeur Provisions.

"If you are registered as a chauffeur be sure and wear your badge on your clothing, as required by law.

"Any person using a fictitious chauffeur's license or badge is liable to a fine of $25.

"Any chauffeur or other person having the care of a motor vehicle, who takes any consideration for the purchase of supplies, parts or work, for said vehicle, may be fined $200 and imprisonment in the county jail for a period of six months.

"No person shall operate an automobile or motorcycle without consent of the owner. A fine of $200 and six months imprisonment in the county jail may be imposed.

"If you drive your car after night without lights, you are liable to a fine or not less than $10.

"Do not exceed the speed limit. If you do you will be fined $200. Racing on the public highway is prohibited by law.

"Do not attach a 'License Applied For' card to your automobile. There is no provision made in the law for the use of such a card, and it will not assist you in getting by the officers.

"The law makes no provision for any license plates except those which are furnished by the secretary of state. You may be fined $25 if you use a fictitious plate.

License Plate Provisions.

"It is dangerous as well as unlawful to allow any part of your motor vehicle to run while it is left standing without an attendant. A fine of $25 is provided for violation of this section of the law. If you sell your car be sure to remove the license plates and file statement of change of ownership. This is for your protection.

"If you are convicted of violation of the same section of the law twice the secretary of state will revoke your license.

"The license of any chauffeur who drives a car while intoxicated will be revoked.

Other Duties.

"It is your duty to know the speed ordinances of cities and villages. If you don't, take no chances.

"Test your brakes every morning. Be considerate of other motorists. When in doubt, go slow or stop. Better to cause a delay than an accident. Go slow when passing children, passing vehicles, approaching crossings and street corners and stop at railway crossings, when a pedestrian becomes confused in front of you and when behind standing street cars. The 'Law of the Road' is the law of the land in Illinois. Keep to the right and pass to the right of vehicles going in the opposite direction. Signal and pass to the left of another vehicle going in the same direction.

"Upon signal of another vehicle approaching from the rear, pull to the right and allow it to pass.

"Signal to vehicles in the rear before slowing down or stopping on the public highway."

BIDS FOR COAL.

Bids are hereby asked for supplying the city light plant and pumping station with coal for the contract year, which will begin August 9, 1917. Bids are desired for the light plant on mine run, No. 4 and 5 washed, egg; 1 1-4 inch screenings; for pumping station mine run and steam lump.

The council reserves the right to reject any and all bids, which will be received until 10 a. m. Tuesday, July 31st.

R. L. Pyatt, City Clerk.

UNCLE SAM AN EASY MARK

(The Enemy Alian Talks to Robert J. Wildhack of the Vigilantes)

(I ran across him on a bench in the Park this morning. He remembered that I had listened to him attentively before, so he bagan to talk. Perhaps he thought he could convert me to pro-Germanism, or perhaps he just wanted to show me that he didn't care a continental whether I thought him a spy or not. I didn't report him. I made a date with him instead. I want him to pour out some more of the sedition that seems to be boiling inside of him.)

Do you think that we Germans are afraid of Uncle Sam? Not much, we are not. But it is better that we should keep a little quiet and kid him along until the proper time.

You don't believe it or not, just as you choose, but you remember that this war was predicted by German army officers 15 years in advance and they knew nobody would believe it, and nobody did. I can tell you now, and I could tell everybody now, that the reason that you don't hear about things being blown up in this country and all kind of trouble, is not because somebody said "Obey the law and keep your mouth shut. We don't get scared so easy, junger.

We found out something in England and we know something about this country too. The reason we are laying low is because we don't want the people to get excited in a hurry. We gotta have a little time. We got our orders, alright.

This country has said it is in the war since nearly four months already and everything goes along slow and nice for us. Congress talks, talks, like all you bluffers and gets nothing done, much, and the Pacifists they make trouble and hold you back. Nobody gets excited. Everything is nice and sweet and peaceable.

If some German forgot his orders or went crazy or something and killed a lot of people with dynamite, then I'm afraid that Uncle Sam would get upon his hind legs and rase hell. Well, we don't want that. So we keep quiet.

If Uncle Sam was German and he wanted to get the country excited he would dynamite a lot of people and blame it on the enemy, but he ain't got so much sense. He is too soft hearted to make war.

All I got to say is this. 'Remember how the German ships were disabled by their crews on the day before Von Bernstorff was sent home and just be sure that when it seems to be the proper time and will hurt the most, there will be hell popping in so many places at once that you won't know which way to turn.

I suppose nobody believes that. "Obey the law and keep your mouth shut." Pooh—pooh!

MARANVILLE'S FIELDING HELPS BRAVES TO WIN

Demaree's Pass to Barnes With the Bases Full Forces in First Run for Boston and a Homer into Right Center by Smith Counts Winning Tally in Fourth.

Boston, July 21.—Chicago outhit Boston today but the locals won, 2 to 1, largely as a result ofMaranville's brilliant fielding. Demaree's pass to Barnes with the bases full forced in Boston's first run in the second inning, and a homer into right ceter field by Smith counted the winning tally in the fourth. Chicago scored thru Mann's single and steal of second base and Williams' triple in the fourth.

Cincinnati, 6-9; Brooklyn, 2-1.

Brooklyn, July 21.—Cincinnati outclassed Brooklyn in both games of today's double header and won easily six to two and 9 to 1. Both games went seven innings before the home team scored a run. The visitors knocked Cadore out of the box in the first game and pounded Pfeffer for seven runs in the first two innings of the second, Miljus recently obtained from Binghampton, pitched the last two innings and made a good impression. Zach Wheat strained his right ankle turning second base in the first game and will be on the hospital list for several weeks. Cadore, Pfeffer and Smith were included in the selective draft as was Eller of Cincinnati. All are pitchers.

Bishop John C. Kilgo, of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, is 56 years old today. He is a South Carolinian and has been actively interested in educational and religious work since he attained manhood. In 1882 he entered the ministry of the M. For some years prior to that date he was active in the management of Trinity College, in North Carolina, and only recently he resigned the presidency (emeritus) of that institution. He has figured prominently in ecclesiastical courts and conferences, as orator and debater; and was a delegate from his denomination to the Ecumenical Methodist Conference, held in London in 1901.

MOOSE ASSEMBLE IN PITTSBURGH

Pittsburgh, Pa., July 21.—Thousands of members of the Loyal Order of Moose are assembling in Pittsburgh for the biennial international convention of their order, which will be informally opened tomorrow and continued through the coming week. Large delegations are expected from nearly all of the principal cities of the United States and Canada. There will be an elaborate program of entertainment for the visitors, with only a slight curtailment of the usual festivities because of the war. Col. Theodore Roosevelt has accepted an invitation to deliver an address before the delegates next Thursday. Business sessions of the supreme lodge will begin Tuesday and continue several days. A proposed increase in dues or assessments is likely to be the most important item of business. Much opposition exists to any increase and it is likely that the proposal will be made the subject of a spirited contest in the convention.

The canning demonstration which was postponed will be held Monday at 2 o'clock at the Trinity Church.

INTERESTING NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

(By Associated Press.)

New York, July—The final and definite decision of the National Lawn Tennis Association to replace the championship singles tournament to be played at the West Side Club,Forest Hills, L. I., beginning August 20, is expected to draw the entry of a number of the leading Eastern and Western players there will be no title or trophy at stake. The winner will receive a certificate stating that he won the tourney, which owing to the war replaced the championship matches. The winner cannot, however, claim a leg upon the present titular bowl which has been in competition for several years.

Under these conditions there is a break in the chain of singles championship competitions, the first in thirty-six years. During this period fourteen players have won the title of singles champion. Of this number two veterans racquet experts divided fourten years betwen them—R. D. Sears and W. A. Larned having won the title seven times each, holds the greater share of the honors, however, as he won his seven championships and two titular trophies in sucesion. His record shows that he captured the cup each season from 1881 to 1887 inclusive, while Larned after winning in 1901-2 did not re-appear as champion until 1907 when he began a five year tenture of the premier tenis position.

R. D. Wrenn comes next with four championships but not in consecutive order. O. S. Campbell and M. D. Whitman each won the title three times. Maurice E. McLaughlin and R. N. Williams 2nd have been two time winners while H. L. Doherty, Beals Wright, W. J. Clothier, H. Ward and W. M. Johnstone apear as one year champions.

For the third time in his base ball career Johnny Evers has shifted his club uniform and his eforts with the Philadelphia Nationals will be followed with interest by fans thruout the country. The present season is the fifiteenth that Evers has served in the big league. During the standpoint of the baseball player, Evers has had a remarkable and spectacular record upon the diamond. Noted for both his quick thinking and fiery temperment he has figured in some of the most sensational of the national game episodes.

Evers made his baseball debut with the Troy club, of the New York State League in 1902, playing shortstop. The following year found him at second base for the Chicago Nationals and he held down the keystone sack for the Cubs until 1914 when he joined the Boston Braves. Now he has moved on to the Phillies where it is expected that he will strengthen second base. Some idea of Fver's ability can be gained from the fact that up to the close of the 1916 season he had played in 1,753 games, with a resultant grand batting average of .238 and a fielding percentage of .813.

Having won the Western Amateur golf championship, Francis Ouimet is in the peculiar position of holding the amateur title of sectional association while barred from amateur competition by the national golf association. This unusual position, due to the attitude taken upon the question of amateurism, would appear susceptable to improvement. The game of golf can hardly be said to be the gainer thereby.

Schupp, Tesreau, Benton, Sallee and Perritt of the Griants are among the dozen leading pitchers of the National league.

Paulette, who went to the St. Louis Cardinals from the St. Louis Browns, where he batted for only .130, is now hitting at a .300 clip.

Recent batting averages showed that every team in both the American and National leagues had at least one pastimer hitting for .300 or better.

The Phillies are not doing much in the base stealing line. The team's hitting and pitching have been O. K., but the Morans have been poor pilferers.

It is considered doubtful if the change in managers will help the Pirates to any great extent. In fact, there doesn't seem to be much help for the Buccaneers this season.

Business Manager Bancroft of the Cincinnati Reds has third place for Matty's team. Right now the Reds look as though they would make good Banny's prediction.

Although Bobby Roth of Cleveland has had a bad foot for the past two years his pastiming has been on a par with that of the best of the big leaguers.

The Giants certainly are proving a hard outfit for National league teams to beat. Present indications point to the McGrawites romping home a winner with a mile of daylight between them and the runner-up.

Ivan Olson, who was benched earlier in the season, is putting up a swell game for the Brooklyn Superbas. Since his return to regular work Olson has led his team in batting and at the same time has played bang-up ball in the field.

The White Sox, picked by many to win the pennant, still have a troublesome time ahead of them. There is a possibility that the dope may be upset by either the Red Sox, the Indians, Tigers or Yankees.

Earl Hamilton, heaver for the St. Louis Browns, has an average of .400 as a batter and a pitching average of .000.

Honus Wagner has had more "special days" staged in his honor than any other player in the history of baseball. Nearly every National league club has staged a "Wagner Day" this season.

So far the Braves have failed to make good on early season predictions. The Stallings crowd were touted as being of the top-notch

Pat Haley, the old Red Sox—Pirate backstop, is catching a fine game for the Athletics.

The Giants appear to be fast gaining a reputation as the real rowdy-rowdies of the big yard.

Two college pastimers, Duggan of Holy Cross and French of the University of Maine, are showing their wares to Manager Connie Mack of the Athletics.

Pitcher Rube Marquard has been hurling the same kind of winning ball for Brooklyn recently that he tossed for the Giants several years ago.

Recent records indicate that National leagurers are poor base stealers in comparison with the work on the paths of their American league brethren.

Tris Speaker will have to hit as he never hit before if he overtakes Ty Cobb this season. There is no such thing as stopping Ty once he gets the range.

variety, but the dope has gone wrong.

Eddie Mahan, the former Harvard football and baseball star, and now a member of the U. S. Marines, is pastiming with the Marines' team in Philadelphia.

The Cleveland Indians are not displaying the pep they did last season. It is doubtful if the Fohlies finish in the first division unless the team takes a decided brace.

Two former big league pilots, Frank Chance and Harry Wolverton have quit the Pacific Coast league. Chance was manager of the Los Angeles team and Wolverton was the San Francisco leader.

Looks as if "Slim" Caldwell, the Yankees' star pitcher, just can't behave. "Slim" wil pitch gilt-edge ball in a string of games, then break training and suffer a fine and suspension.

Hal Chase, who led the National league batsmen last year, is having a poor season in stick work. The Reds' brilliant first-sacker is far behind the leading hitters of the National league.

Manager Honus Wagner of the Pirates is still one of the greatest hitters in the big show. The veteran is sticking with the .300 set, notwithstanding his years and the additional burden of piloting his team.

CUSTOM CUTTERS TO MEET.

Cedar Point, O., July 21. — The details of the nifty dressers' apparel for next fall and winter are to be decided by the International Custom Cutters' association whose members are gathering here for their midsummer meeting. As a war economy measure the association is not likely to go so far as to decree the elimination of pockets in men's coats and trousers, but it is said that tight trousers and short coats will be advocated as a means of saving material.

MAN 85 YEARS OLD IS WORKING DAILY

Seymour Feels Fine Every Way Since Taking Tanlac

"Nearly every day I advise someone to try Tanlac for I'm convinced the new medicine will help everyone who is troubled", J. Seymour, a prominent local retired farmer of 319 South East stret, told the Tanlac Man on July 14.

"When a medicine helps a man of my age—85 years—it certainly proves that it is a preparation of merit", he continued. "I guess the run down, weakened condtion of my general system was due to my age.

"I had been reading in the Jacksonville papers of Tanlac's good work and finally decided to try it. Well sir, Tanlac seemed to tone up my system generally as I feel fine in most every way now. Notwithstanding my age, I do my work every day now, sleep and eat with the greatest satisfaction and feel good all the time. I'm buying a bottle of Tanlac for my daughter, today, and I'm going to have her begin the use of the medicine."

Tanlac is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, sleeplessness, loss of appetite and the like.

Tanlac is now being introduced in Jacksonville at the Coover-Shreve Drug Co., East Side store, where a special Tanlac representative is explaining the new medicine to the public daily. Tanlac also may be obtained at the West Side store of the Coover-Shreve Co. It is sold in Waverly at the Wyle Drug Co.; in New Berlin at the New Berlin Drug Co.; in Ashland at H. O. Brownback's; in Versailles at A. G. Bates'; in Chapin at F. P. McKinney's; in Roodhouse at W. D. Berry's; in White Hall at the City Drug store; in Bluffs at F. T. Curtis', and in Pittsfield at J. H. Barber & Co; in Loami at L. N. VanDeren's; in Divernon at E. G. Haug's; in Manchester at C. D. Chapman's and in Winchester at the City drug store.—Adv.

United States Department of Agriculture Tells How to Avoid Canning Troubles.

Washington, D. C., July.—Careful painstaking canning is the only kind of canning that pays, declares the United States department of agriculture in a statement issued today warning housewives against carelessness in putting up fruits and vegetables.

"The faithful following of approved methods and directions is the only safe road to success in canning," says the statement. "Housewives who carelessly practice methods that are new to them, or who attempt to 'improve' on the methods, or to make short cuts, are taking a risk of spoiling good food. Canning is essentially a scientific process, however much it may have been simplified for home use.

"In the canning methods which the department advocates careful study has been made of the essentials for the preservation of food products, and all steps not absolutely necessary have been eliminated. There is good reason, therefore, for each step which is advocated. If home canners profess to follow a department method, they should follow it in detail; and if they fail so to follow it, they should frankly recognize that not the method but the application of it is at fault. Especially there should be no mixing of methods, whether those of the department or others. One method should be adopted and followed carefully in canning any given batch of products.

"In the one-period cold-pack method of canning in particular, canning has been simplified greatly as compared with some other methods. For this very reason, every step called for in the directions is essential, and not one should be omitted or performed otherwise than as indicated. Specialists who have worked out and demonstrated this method of canning for the last five years, have investigated all reports of the spoilage of products, and have found in every case that the trouble was due to faulty equipment, including poor rubbers and containers, to failure to follow the directions carefully, to the use of old or spoiled vegetables or fruits, or to the local occurrence in certain vegetables of unusual spores which prove troublesome even under commercial canning practices. By following the simple directions exactly the specialists themselves have put up with homemade water-bath outfits, without loss, thousands of jars and cans of various products.

"The following points especially should be kept in mind when canning by the one-period cold-pack method:

"Test jars, and use only those free from flaw.

"Use only good quality live rubber rings.

"Use only fresh, sound vegetables or fruits.

"Wash products thoroughly.

"Blanch in boiling water or live steam—hot water or vapor will not do.

"Dip in cold water—not tepid or warm water.

"Dip quickly into and out of cold water—do not soak.

"Pack into jars immediately—do not let the dipped products stand uncovered while you attend to something else.

"Be sure the jars are hot when the product is put into them. They can be kept hot in vessels of boiling water.

"Place the top and rubber on each jar as it is filled—do not wait until all the jars are filled.

"Place the jars in boiling (not merely hot) water deep enough to cover them entirely (not merely part way up the side of the jars.)

"Sterilize for the full time indicated in the directions. Count time after boiling point has been reached.

"After sealing, turn jars upside down to cool so that those with leaky lids may be found easily, and so that their contents may be resterilized in tight-sealing containers.

"Store in a cool place—not in a hot kitchen or attic.

"Above all, plan so that you will not be interrupted. Then work quickly, and devote your whole attention to the work in hand. Let all other housework go, if possible, until all the jars are in the sterilizer. Any delay in performing the steps between blanching and sterilizing means risk of loss."

BROKEN DOWN IN HEALTH

Woman Tells How $5 Worth of Pinkham's Compound Made Her Well.

Lima, Ohio.—"I was all broken down in health from a displacement. One of my lady friends came to see me and she advised me to commence taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I began taking your remedies and took $5.00 worth and in two months was a well woman after three doctors said I never would stand up straight again. I was a midwife for seven years and I recommended the Vegetable Compound to every woman to take before birth and afterwards, and they all got along so nicely that it surely is a godsend to suffering women. If women wish to write to me I will be delighted to answer them."—Mrs. JENNIE MOYER, 342 E. North St., Lima, Ohio.

Women who suffer from displacements, weakness, irregularities, nervousness, backache, or bearing-down pains, need the tonic properties of the roots and herbs contained in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

MAKE PLEA FOR SKILLED WORKERS

Training skilled mechanics and high-grade helpers is the next step in National preparation, according to the Department of the Interior, which has sent broadcast, thru the Bureau of Education, an appeal to trade schools, manual training high schools, and all schools with shop-work departments, to prepare to meet the demands that will come for semi-technical workers in the metal trades and other industries. President Wilson, Secretary of Commerce Redfield and other Government officials are also vigorously behind the effort to enlist vocational schools and classes everywhere in the establishment of this second line of industrial defense.

"It is impossible," says the Department's statement, "to forecast definitely the numbers of mechanics and operatives of various kinds that will be required. Officers of the Army, Navy, and Civil Service Commission are agreed, however, that during the next few months there will be an unusual demand for capable foremen, mechanics, and high grade helpers in a number of important occupations." The following are some of the workers who will be most urgently needed: Automobile mechanics, bakers, blacksmiths, boat builders, chauffeurs , cooks, draftsmen, electricians, engineers (setam), engineers (gas), machinists, motorcycle mechanics, painters, pipefitters, riveters, saddlers, shipfitters, shipwrights, tent-makers, textile workers, wheelwrights, stenographers, textile workers, wheelwrights, stenographers, typewriters.

It is pointed out that the demands for these workers will come from the regular enlisted corps of the army and navy, from the enlisted reserve corps of the army and navy, from the eligible registers of the Civil Service Commission, and from private employers whose workers are called into Government service. After the war there will also be a continued demand for similar workers in the reorganiation and rehabilitation of industry.

Maintaining school thruout the summer months, encouraging students between 16 and 20 years of age now already enrolled to continue their training, and discouraging premature entrance into industry, are urged as necessary. The Bureau warns particularly against any relaxation of standards, pointing out that half-baked mechanics will in the end inevitably impair the efficiency of any branch of the service. "Young persons now enrolled in technical courses should be urged to complete their courses, even at the cost of some temporary sacrifice, if necessary, in order that they may ultimately contribute the maximum of service when needed, say Bureau officials.

"For many years the department has been furnishing assistance in the canning, drying and preserving of perishables as well as in their marketing. In the last four years, in particular, great extensions of activities in this field have been made. A Bureau of Markets, with varied activities and forces reaching into very many sections of the Union, with a regular budget of nearly $2,000,000 has been built up. It has rendered aid in many directions. Thru the evolution of the Market News Service, it has been particularly helpful to truck growers. Under the food-production bill, now pending before Congress, large extensions of the activities of the department in the field of marketing, especially in the marketing of perishables, and of the conservation of these products, of other farm products, and of live stock, are provided for. The bill carries one item of $4,348,000 for aditional assistance in the production and conservation of farm products, involving in particular the extension of the county agent and home demonstration system. It carries another item of $2,522,000 for the emergency extension of the marketing work.

"It has been a part of our program to call to our aid men actually engaged in the handling of such commodities, and hence our appeal to you. The particular points for consideration at this time are the ascertaining of the areas in which special service can be rendered, the best means of conserving surplus perishables thru canning, drying, or other devices, the securing of adequate supplies of containers, the improvement of marketing conditions, and the most helpful agencies to be enlisted for service. With a view to ascertain somewhat more fully the actual facts as to production and as to areas where surpluses may exist I have had a survey made, thru departmental and other agencies, and have received returns which will be submitted for your consideration. I shall not further delay your conference. The officers of the department who have been immediately dealing with these problems will be at hand to participate in the conference. I have asked Mr. Lasker immediately to supervise these activities in cooperation with Mr. Ousley and other officers of the department. They will welcome your assistance and will immediately proceed to confer with you in detail.

Conferences on Other Subejcts Foreshadowed.

"I may add, in passing, that this is only one of a number of conferences which the department is planning to hold with farmers and farmers' organizations, stock men and live stock organizations, and representatives of State Committees on food-production and conservation, of the State Departments of Agriculture and of the land-grant colleges with refernce to other important problems and especialy with a view to having the best answer to the question, How to get ready for next year."

DINNER TO CELEBRATE U. S. ENTRY INTO WAR

Spirit of American People and Strength of Ties Which Bind U. S. to Allies Keynote of Function at Melbourne —President Wilson Sends Cablegram.

Melbourne, Australia, July — (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—The spirit of the American people and the strength of the ties which bind the United States to the Allies constituted the keynote of a dinner given recently by American citizens resident in Australia to the Governor-General of the Commonwealth, Sir Ronald C. Munro Ferguson at Melbourne. Altho the function was in honor of the King's chief representative in Australia, the dinner was intended also to celebrate the entry of the United States into the war, on the side of Great Britain. The occasion was one of expressions of co-operation and mutual esteem by Americans and British. There were toasts to King George and President Wilson. Speeches were delivered by the Governor-General and others in official life, Britons, Americans and Australians; and the messages of folicitation from President Wilson and the Australian Prime Minister, William M. Hughes were read. The Governor-General said:-

"The different value set by one nation on a scrap of paper on which is written its constitution and that set by another on the scrap of paper on which was inscribed its solemn international pledges is one of the reasons why Germany went to war in 1914 and why the United States abstained from war until 1917. But when civilization is at stake and a people resolved on righteousness can no longer remain outside the ring, and when the United States is resolved to be no longer in doubt when ten millions liable for military service register in 24 hours—that is the great answer of the United States to the German claim to exercise unrestricted piracy and unbridled dominion. It reveals the American mind towards German aims and German brutality."

President Wilson's cablegram read: "I gladly associate myself with our citizens in this manifestation of international goodwill"; and Mr. Hughes who was prevented by poor health from attending the dinner said in his message: "The people of the Great Republic are to be congratulated on the fact that they have taken up arms for freedom. America and Australia today are drawn together by bonds of a common ideal, made strong by sacrifices which time and circumstances will cement more strongly for our common good." George Foster Pearce, Minister for Defense, who represented the Commonwealth in absence of Mr. Hughes, recalled the visit of the Atlantic battleship fleet to Australian waters in 1909 as proof of the 'big brotherhood" of the United States toward Australia and evoked applause by adding:

"Australians will never forget that the heritage of self-government which they enjoy today was bought very largely by the men who died on Bunker Hill."

Fewer Marriages in Paris.

Paris, July—Meatless days have had the effect of suppressing marriages as well as the consumption of beef, veal, mutton, pork and fowl, on Mondays and Tuesdays in Paris. Tuesday formerly was a particularly lively day in the marriage salons of the twenty mayors' offices in Paris. They now are deserted. The reason is supposed to be that meatless wedding feasts are not acceptable.

Revolution in Dye Trade.

Manchester, England, July—The dye trade has undergone a revolution during the war and brought prosperity to more than one British firm, owing to the necessity of inventing and manufacturing dyes formerly bought entirely from Germany. Just before the war the shares of one color and dye stuff company, were obtainable at nine shillings each. Now they are selling at ninety pounds sterling.

Tokio Has Many Publications.

Tokio, July—Tokio has 761 newspapers and magazines, and 38 news agencies, according to latest statistics.

BROTHER OF MEXICAN REBEL LEADER DEAD

Mexico City, July.—Report has been made to the department of war, by the military authorities of Morelos, of the death og Eufemio Zapata, brother of the rebel leader at or near Cuautla, Morelos, June 18. According to the report Zapata learning that General Sidronio Comancho, a Zapata leader, had surrendered to the government forces and accepted amnesty, attacked Cuautla with the object of capturing the man who had deserted the Zapata ranks. In the assault Zapata was shot three times and killed while leading his men against the town.

PRICE OF COTTON REACHES GENERAL LEVEL

Manchester England, July — Professor Todd calls attention to the fact that while the price of cotton has been establishing new records every other day, it has reached a level commensurate with the rise in the general level of prices for the first time since the beginning of the war.

WHEAT PRICE ADVANCES AND CLOSES STRONG

Finish is at 2.05 for July and 2.27¾ for September—Corn Closes Heavy

Chicago, July 21.—Assumed certainty of the enactment of a minimum wheat price guaranteed by the federal government had a bullish effect today on wheat here. An advance of 5c to 9¾c net took place, and the close was strong with July at $2.55 and Sept. at $2.27¾. Corn finished heavy, unchanged to 1¾c lower at $1.63 to $1.63⅜ Sept. and $1.16⅛ December. The outcome in oats was ⅛c off to ⅛c up and for provisions an advance of 5c to 32c.

Wheat started upward also as soon as the market opened here and there was at no time any important setback.

Unfavorable crop reports from the northwest continued to be a source of anxiety to shorts.

Week-end profit taking by holders finally turned corn market downgrade after a display of surprising strength. Persistent demand formed the chief basis of the temporary bulge.

New high price levels were reached for oats. The big discount of oats under corn was a factor and so too were crop complaints from the northwest.

Provisions rose with hogs and as a result of an advance in quotations of meats at Liverpool.
